FOREWORD FROM NATALIA

You are holding a book where you will find the mysterious 22 energies of the World Genesis thoroughly explained and discussed. I discovered them on my way as an author and healing practitioner of the Destiny Matrix The 22 codes ©.

Each of us might sooner or later ask a question, why am I living? Who am I? What is a deep meaning of my life on Earth? Why was I born in this country? Why are these my parents giving birth to me at this very point of time? Is there, perhaps, a very important mission I was born for?

Sometimes, our destiny may seem as something enigmatic and volatile beyond our self-comprehension.

At times, impulses of in-depth processes reach our consciousness; us finding it much easier to live, solve everyday tasks. We become thus happier. Our life is filled with meaning. How often do we hear words like, I am clueless about what I should do. I have no idea where to study. I am not sure where I can implement my creative potential. Or even worse, my life is boring, I see no sense of existence on Earth.

While, can be otherwise: what happens is people don't even get bothered by any questions. And so, days pass fecklessly, people think, much I care, don't they? Since everyone lives so!

All those questions are chiming in our souls, where there is an answer to them. We are all different, with different potentials of our skills. Yet there is one thing which makes us all identical – our DESTINY!

To be able to comprehend what it means to move our life-long path efficiently and mindfully, see and realize our goals, working out a plan to make them come true.

The Destiny Matrix 22 codes © was discovered for the sake of expansion of human opportunities, choices and a smoother, happier transition into newer energies, coming down on the Earth during the shift of our planet from the World of Soul into the Spirit Land to houseclean and zero out our accumulated negative karma of our passed lives and family channels from a three- to four-fold vibrational energies row. The planet 4th destiny calculation is an evidence. We used to apply three levels in our Method calculation initially, whereas nowadays we have added the 4th destiny which speaks about a global expansion of human possibilities and an inevitable cleansing of the soul, body and spirit.

Both body (lifespan is going to be longer with aging will slow down) and soul transformation opening up peoples' channel of unconditional Universal love and forgiveness is going to open up as well as acceptance. The transformation of the Spirit will dismantle new, additional energetic channels, enriching your aura, strengthening and expanding it. Extra energy resources and power will be there.

Working on your personal matrix code (threes of energies), which is unblocking of a hidden humanity potential, the Method enables a complete deciphering of the codes and provides practical ways to use it.

The most important thing is interacting with the 22 codes. Realizing their evolution, people understand capabilities of their souls. While knowing how the method works, they get the key to a fast and effective zeroing out their karma, recognizing it first.

As we calculate our Destiny Matrix, we get to see our own improvement areas to take care of. For that purpose, there are specific techniques you will learn about by reading this book. As a result, we get a chance to enter a new conductivity and perceiving of the energies.

And so, a forthcoming transition onto new energies will be easy and safe to go through.

I am 100% convinced that everyone needs this knowledge, it is a great and priceless thing for everyone.

This is how I got an idea to write the book. Perhaps, on finishing it, you will be the one to keep the log rolling and spread the knowledge across other people and distributing new idea in the world.

MAGIC MOMENTS OF THE BOOK

In this book, I will share the codes information as well as magic drawings (images) of healing on each energy, which you can use for meditating and a deeper submersion into the Method. The images have an amazing history.

It all happened when I was visiting the Indonesian Bali where I was spending my silence retreat. Something incredible happened to me then: I was performing a healing ritual and right there did I sense that my both families (masculine and feminine) who used to be at war before now turned into my inner struggle I inherited for healing purposes. While working on healing and forgiving that inside, I injured my knee against sea rocks. It turned to be quite a serious trauma, preventing me to move at all. It was clear that I would not have survived 13 hr flight to Moscow. I had 5 days before the flight. My logic was telling me to go to a hospital, have my knee taken care of and start treatment. While my intuition was running against that whispering in my year that this was a test I would pass and I had the energy knowledge and resource to be healed in a new and different way.

At my own risk, I made a decision not to ask for doctors help, doing that on my own and started many-hour meditation techniques and healing practices and of course, use the codes information. Once when I was doing a meditation, images started to appear in front of my eyes, simplistic and ordinary ones I was able to sketch easily. It took me a few hours non-stop, and by night I was amazed to see smaller bruising and swelling on my injured knee with pain alleviated. So, I kept drawing the code images with the effect staying the same. My mind was opposing me, saying that those were mere mages nothing more than that, and the knee was healed from meditations.

Then what I did was trying to place the images at my knee and; immediately I sensed cold sensation coming out of. Then I realized that those images were sent to me for healing and I could use those as magic symbols. Besides, I began charging water and drinking it. I would stare at the energy codes for hours standing behind and meditated.

The healing was there.

I kept on performing the ritual with my knee getting better and better. It was a hitherto unknown and neither scientifically or medically unexplainable magic healing.

On the flight day, my limping was hardly noticeable, the wound healed, the swelling gone and fever gone too.

P.S. And here I am on board of the Moscow flight, and imagine how astounded I was to spot a vacant seat in a fully packed tourist jet from Bali. The seat was perfect for my injured knee to enjoy more comfortable position.

There was no one able to comprehend that at all, unlike me... I kept saying sincere thanks to my angels for their love and help for me. I still believed in wonders, casting aside happy tears with my heart filled with gratitude. The ordeal seemed so distant dying away as a morning mist. One thing was chiming in my head: Magical Bali... On my return, I made a firm decision to include the magic images of the codes into this thrilling book to enable my readers to mediate, asking questions to their angels while looking at them, or have them scanned or photocopied and then use for magical water charging adding the healing features of each code.

HOW TO USE THE IMAGES OF EACH CODE

What you need to do is spend 5 minutes staring at each image. Then you may ask an angel responsible for the code a question you want to ask, close your eyes meditating. It may take about 10 minutes to get a response as a mental image, sensation, a colored flame etc. It depends on each of us. Trust those visions. On leaving the meditation, thank the angel of the code and close the book. You can practice that before bedtime with prophetic dreams following.

There are also spiritual messages of the code Teachers for people.

I received them via my clairgnosis channel in 2010 on Phuket, Thailand.

Messages of 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th, 17th, 18th and 19th were sent to me on a desert island of Rang Yai Thailand. The rest were received on Phuket, Thailand where I visited on a retreat to write this book. I was writing it listening to rustling of soft and majestic ocean waves.

WHAT SPIRITUAL WORK IS

Each person's spirit is in direct connection with their faith. While our faith depends on our daily reactions and thoughts. What we deeply believe in attracts things we ponder over, and when we do, consequently, we create mental images, that is, pictures of potential events. Thus, hereby, we unknowingly attract them into our lives because they are directly connected with our thoughts, I mean, all reasons are encoded in our past while our past is our karma of those passed incarnations which no longer exist!

Still, most people keep on living with this faith, still attracting negative stuff in their future lives! Not for a reason are there multiple let-it-go techniques by breaking an emotional connection with our past. To make room for new and thrilling events, you need to cleanse space in your inner world, to be able to open up for brand new, progressive and exciting stuff, do get rid of old clogs!

The Destiny Matrix 22 codes © is based on healing techniques that work with your subconsciousness, that is GETTING RID OF ALL STUFF YOU BELIEVED IN IN YOUR PAST, of old and unprogressive ideas, and sure thing, of burdening emotions and memories!

Everything that has become ashes, needs to be scattered now! If we enjoy housecleaning all those clogs, it means we are busy with our spiritual work!

Spirituality is all about things we believe in. Faith means spirit. Purifying and strengthening our faith, replacing it with a new and progressive one for ourselves, we are doing our spiritual work. Listening to healing meditations on daily basis promotes that.

Now can you answer the following questions? What do we truly believe it? Is that kindness, evil, light? Or perhaps, suffering, injustice, darkness, healing, diseases, aging, ailment, strength, courage, firmness, health? Inability to make changes into your life or an opportunity to keep on moving forward, winning, achieving your goals and enjoying your business? Success, luck, in no obstacles and limits? And so on and so forth. Now, do realize that in real life what we do is notice and get aware of things we truly believe in. If, for instance, we believe in inevitability of our infirm aging, we will keep meeting feeble old people, while with a belief of bravery, healthy life, beauty – we are attracted to proactive wise middle-aged people. An age of wisdom and spirit is how I feel like calling what most people call getting old. Yet, if your spirit is sleeping, your faith in negative, then aging becomes close and real. I resorted to the aging illustration because it is clear and understandable. In fact, we can name lots of those. The principle works everywhere in the same identical way. It does in business and success! Do your best to take a moment and watch what successful people believe in. What are their strong beliefs?

I am often asked a question, how do you get started? Work on yourself starts from taking care of your negative thoughts and a deep forgiveness technique. To do that, I have prepared and recorded a healing forgiveness meditation. To forgive everyone in need to forgive and yourself.

Housecleaning your mind, your burdening resentment and emotions is the start to your spiritual journey. Weeding out your negative thoughts, fears and beliefs, you will sure reap a good harvest yet that is not going to happen right away: a planted seed still needs to go through its development and ripening cycles. And thus, you will achieve your desired result should you persist, be patient and understanding, be able to change your life for the best! It takes a while to change your spiritual faith as basically for everything on Earth. Every person's timing is individual. LIFE IS EXCITING AND AMAZING. YOU SHOULD NOT WAIT FOR THE RESULTS: THE WAY IS THE VERY RESULT OF YOUR SPIRITUAL WORK.

Still, what shall we start from?

Try to do your best and cut down on any negative information coming from TV, radio and newspapers. Start reading self-development books filled with spiritual and in-depth content. Switch to light diet – eat more veggies, fruit, seafood. Drink purified and structured water. Tone your body. Leave room for creativity. Watch more comedies and kind movies, get moving, have outdoor time and play with pets. Do your best to filter negative thoughts replacing them with positive ones. Make the most of negative situations and see the brightside of them. Fill your life with meaning and dreams. Get a close future actions plan. Take advantage of your positive thoughts, do not limit yourself. Start believing in your capabilities and skills.

Unclog the room around you, get rid of old junk donating things to needy people. Just get rid of all you do not need anymore! Pay attention to looking up in the skies. Be grateful. Make sure you remember to take a moment and think about great and eternal things, giving up on the physical work from time to time, knowing that there is a higher meaning on Earth as well. Do pay attention to seeing deeper, noticing signs on your way those sent by life. Strengthen your intuition, learn to meditate, relax. Be kinder to yourself, eliminating your grudges and aggression. Step by step, even when walking slowly, you are still making it on your spiritual road! Accumulate your spiritual energy inside, in your life, thus, you contribute you should get cleansed, getting close to the Spirit and get evolved! Any kind of creativity that you enjoy and feel uplifted by discovering spirituality in people, a Divine flow is moving through it, cleansing and pushing us forward. Being creative means staying in fair heavenly flows!

Enjoy every inch of your spiritual journey!

SINCE SPIRITUAL WORK IS IMPROVING YOUR LIFE IN GENERAL!

THE SEVEN CODES (ENERGIES) OF THE PHYSICAL WORLD

The first code introduces the first group of seven energies of the physical world and is a material temple of the Spirit. It is a plentiful matter, on which the Holy Spirit descends. And the matter gains the ability to yield when the light from the divine source goes down on it. As a winged soul inspired by the Spirit; as water pierced by a ray of light, the light gleams in it from the energy of the wind and freedom.

The Spirit is a luminous heavenly body: the fire in Heaven, the light in Heaven, be it the Sun or the Moon or the star. This light can be bright or flickering reflecting sun-, moon- or starlight in the water...

The matter without the Spirit is dead and fruitless. The matter without a soul awakened by the spirit is sleeping and senseless. Just try to imagine unlit water – it looks lifeless. And as soon as the first rays of the sun touch it, everything comes to life. It feels warm and soft, shines and sparkles in the sun. It is filled with life and awakening.

Yet, those temporary periods of external glow of the sun and luminosity of the sky are washed away with night-time setting in. This where harmony begins. The water glows deep from within – its soft lunar light reflects twinkling of stars.

*Neverending cycles in Heaven and on Earth
In the Sun and Moon we all rejoice.
We want to learn our life's deepest essence
Fly both in dreams and wakeful presence!*

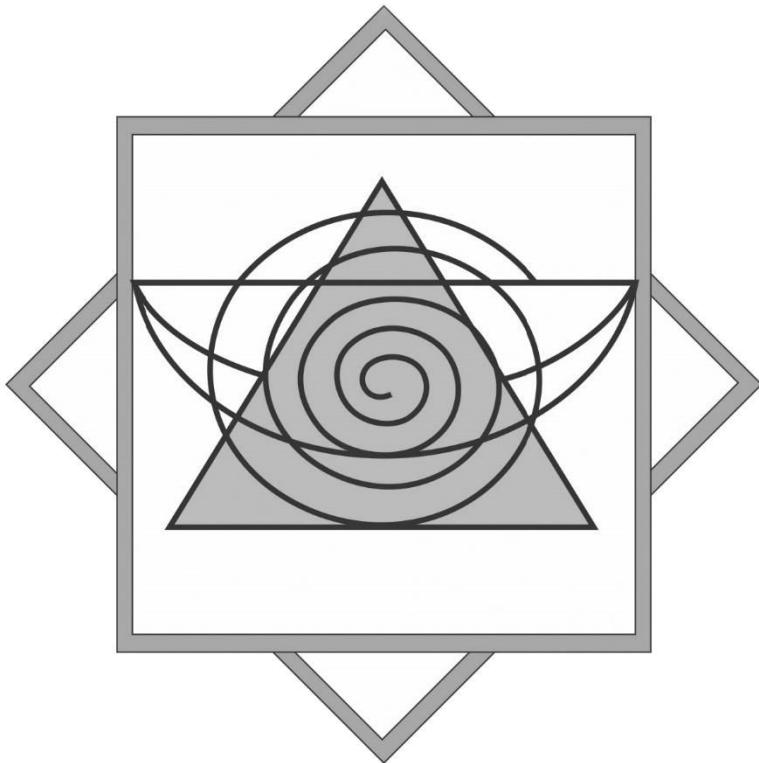

The mission of all people of the physical world codes is to try and give their body their particular attention, love, and respect, take good care of their well-being, develop and train their physical body; ensure they do not go too lazy, overweight, sluggish or sick. The temple of our body should be strong with a solid foundation, which is our backbone and skeletal system. It is especially important to train our legs and lower back (lumbar spine and sacrum) as the lower part of our body corresponds to the World of the Matter in us.

People with physical world energies benefit from all riches our Mother Earth gives us, everything that grows in the area where we were born and grew up, although the whole Earth is our home and needless to say, it loves its children. The Seven codes of the physical world are divided into seven energy levels, e.g. channels, as every type of energy has its wavelength and vibrates at a certain frequency, flowing through our body and providing it with the energy of the given quality. The physical world is everything we own materially. The first seven codes include the first seven arcana from the first to the seventh.

The 1st code of the Destiny Matrix 22 codes©. The energy of MAGICIAN

Affirmation: I am a conduit of divine abilities. My full potential is opening up. I Am who I am. Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

The 1st code

The 1st code – the energy of the Magician:

*I am capable and skilful; God has given me the gifts–
Bravely fighting serpent ego, on the podium I'll shift.
All the pathways I'll envision all of those that I will tread;
I will live some people's lifetimes and embrace them all that led
I'll direct my skills and talents for the Earth's greater good
Heaven glorified and honored – they'll return my sweetest fruit.
I will light the starry blue skies with a glowing star of mine!
Light is always by my side, may it give me strength and shine!*

People, governed by the energy, are extraordinarily talented. Staying socially active is extremely important for them: to find a sphere of life where they will use their chance to create something unique. They are pioneers and leaders who can inspire other people with their ideas and lead others. Since their birth, they are susceptible to all sorts of energies, able to use the energetic potential of the Universe in their activities be those mundane, spiritual or creative things. They are curious to comprehend how material events work.

As a rule, they are optimistic and proactive, adventurous, resourceful, with plenty of thrilling ideas, taking up new projects easily, always aiming to stand out from the crowd, easily and happily sharing their skills and experience. Life is what placed them in the forefront. They often have to blaze a trail for themselves and for many others to follow. They are great at reaching the top of the tree, for the main part doing that single-handedly. They normally make their own life journey helping others. Skilful workers, they can reach the top of their skills, oftentimes on their own, they are great at working solo or with equal partners by stamina, yet hating authoritarian ways towards themselves. Freedom is the key element of the 1st 'coders'. Travellers, seekers of new things out there, discoverers, they are willing to participate in all sorts of experiments and volunteer to do so. Life festivities and fireworks are their sort of thing. They find it much tougher to stagnate rather than stay in the turmoil of life adventures. Their entire life is an adventure filled with wonders for 1st code people if they succeed in believing and opening their destinies up to marvellous power of higher forces. Their destinies, like mosaics of amazing pictures and miracles, are created and attracted by the magician in their life. Those who deal with them, start evolving faster with the magician perceiving them with his supreme senses as equal partners. And only true, deep, natural trust in genuine strength of the spirit is regarded an authority which the magician recognizes unconditionally. To win their heart is to gain protection, support and love of a good friend. These people have a magical power of thought, word and greatheartedness. Their energy levels are in tune with materializing capabilities of the Universe. All roads are open to them, many of which they will have to take with happiness and joy!

Their motto runs:

*I am my own man
Having my own game plan.
I live and create with my guiding star
I am recognized by my work by far
I live and create with my guiding star
I am recognized by my work by far*

Spiritual mission sent from above for the Magician people:

*Be always yourself –
That's your sacral lesson.
Fill yourself with the Mother Earth's power
Fly with your thoughts any hour.
Reach out to stars and long-cherished goals,
Unveil your talents, save human souls.
Achieve recognition and glory
And write your own magic story!*

You are a person holding a burning torch of Divine Love! God has given you wondermaking skills. Make sure to always remember this, knowing how to develop and implement them, doing good to a lot of people who come your way. There is a mark of the Divine Star in your destiny. You are truly God's miracle, for God is inside of you and He is a miracle! You have a power of thought and mind and the Earth's Power is in you. Any thought is followed by materializing energy, that is of the action. Develop your skills and share them with people! Whenever you follow the energy of your destiny, you feel uplifted, inspired, you are in the state of joy and happiness. Everything feels good and your eyes sparkle. You look beautiful and attractive because beauty comes from within like the glow of Divine Love. Things start to look friendly and wonderful. And they really are, since you got in tune in with your own unique flow, which only you can understand and feel blended with. It has covered you like a true friend and helper would and it will stay by your side forever if you let it: stand by you, fulfil you, light you, love you and make you happy. This is you and this is the Divine in you. Reach out your hand and an Angel's feather will fall in it from the Heaven. Right there you will know—God is with you!

*You're the magician in your mind,
You are the one in all you do—
Magician: God-send, wise and kind.
In dreams you dream you're really true.
You bring out a brand new life
Carrying inside creative light,
You play your own little life;
You paint the world a miraculous sight!*

It is crucial for you to understand that you were born the blessed magician and that you're truly the one, for the Universe gave you this quality at birth. Be sure to always remember this, learn to control the power of your mind and start thinking positively, to see the Divine in everyday life, in those everyday little things. We need to learn to grasp signs of Higher Forces on our life path. Learn to never limit your thoughts and God in you, and, consequently, stop doubting. You should learn to have faith in unconditional miracles. Those are magicians who has not doubted a miracle once! Then miracles will become a normal part of your life, or, let's put it simply, the presence and guidance of the Divine will always be there with you! Wherever you are and whatever you do – remember about your wonderworking star, for you are the Magician!

Take a good care of your physical body for it is the Temple of the Spirit. Wonders can happen only in a pure, light- and energy-filled temple. Remember that and take care of yourself. You are capable of bringing good into many people's lives! Fear nothing and doubt no intentions of yours to come true. Be firm and decisive, be proactive, and luck will definitely come your way for you are the Magician! Call Higher Forces to action to help you out with fulfilling your intentions more often! Learn how to practice meditations, prayers and rituals.

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

Remember that the road to fulfilling your destiny lies through healing your negative qualities connected with this energy. First, what we need to do is spring-clean our karmic blockages in our lives, and then the water of our life river starts flowing!

Improvement areas of the 1st code (attitude/life approaches that need to be reworked and need your special attention) also known as unworked-out negative karma:

- the 1st code people tend to acknowledge only their self- importance, value and uniqueness
- a vivid superiority sign over other people, egocentric, that is
- abusing their magic abilities for their own purposes
- inhibiting and dominating other people
- lack of faith in their own abilities, lack of love for oneself, disrespecting their own personality, inferiority complexes, feeling insecure, diminishing their own virtues, rejecting their talents, lack of faith in their success
- self-esteem is either too high, or too low, pride.

Karmic how to's:

- start believing in yourself. Instead of waiting for the good to come, learn to act first for the sake of others
- find a perfect job or activity, restore your self-esteem, develop your creative and energetic skills
- learn the law of materialization
- be brave enough to move on in life, discovering brand new paths and roads, and on doing so, lead others
- work on your selfishness, high or low self-esteem
- implement your talents in society

Recommended occupations/activities:

Characteristic are manual professions like:

massage therapists, jewellers, tailors, artisans, wood carvers, sculptors, blacksmiths. Leadership jobs associated with the power of thought suit them; also, jobs that involve adopting new ideas and knowledge; inventors, scientists. They are people dealing with occultism and magic – sorcerers, bioenergetic therapists, healers.

Celebrities born with the 1st energy in their destinies:

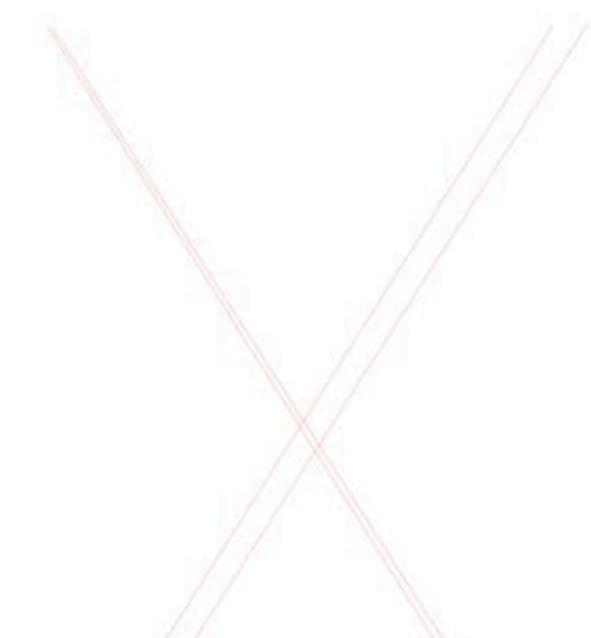

Francesco Stradivari (December 1st, 1671), Morgan Freeman (June 1st, 1937), Marilyn Monroe (June 1st, 1926), Princess Diana (July 1st, 1961), Estée Lauder (July 1st, 1908).

The 2nd code of the Destiny Matrix 22 codes©. The energy of UNITY, EQUALITY and HARMONY

Affirmation: I am in harmony with myself and the world. I am in oneness state.

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

The 2nd code

The 2nd code - THE ENERGY OF UNITY, EQUALITY AND HARMONY

*Harmony sounds so sweet–
That my soul is singing along,
Steadying my fast heartbeat;
Now the old pain is gone.
I am a guardian of love and light!
The Laws of Universe are all in me
My whole life is watching the sight,
No rushing, be still and be free.
Harmony sounds so sweet
That my soul rejoices along.
Steadying my fast heartbeat;
Now the old pain is gone.*

People of the 2nd code are born diplomats, their skills to regulate any conflicts, smooth over the differences, effectively deal with negative emotional outbursts, absorbing them with their energy are phenomenal. They deeply sense and see stuff; able to see and notice what is hidden and lies beyond the border of common human perception and understanding. This kind of people are very observant, enigmatic, mysterious and cautious. They normally stay away from revealing their true colors to everyone, often giving the appearance while hiding the truth from prying eyes. Their energy is fluid and envelopes like mysterious haze over a river at dawn, like enigmatic mist floating over the Earth, like a cloud covering the mountain tops. I am here and I am nowhere. I am both bright and yet I am invisible. I am captivating, yet I am elusive. I am solar and lunar at the same time. I am contrary of the Universe and yet its unity:

*Where are you my other half?
My heart keeps your image like a photograph
Or an image of you I painted
And your presence I have created.
I am searching for you
From thousands of faces I will know that is true.
I'll walk all the roads with you.
They are all smooth as long as you are in view.
I'll walk all the roads with you.
They are all smooth as long as you are in view.*

Unity and struggle of opposites are reflected in energies of the 2nd code of the Destiny Matrix: this is about a transition from one state into another. People of the 2nd code are soft yet contradictory; however, they sense things going on with great subtlety, empathize with other peoples' sorrows and do their best to help and heal. They are good at persuading, soothing, relieving pain, they are born natural healers and diplomats; attracted to the unusual and mysterious stuff. These people can read someone else's mind as if from the Book of Being. Their advice and wisdom are remedy for many people. They do not wish to achieve leadership positions, keeping a low profile most of the time. Doing so, they like to gradually navigate a situation. They can step aside, leaving the argument battle field. Fuss is not about them — they value their personal meditative state. They hardly ever let anybody into their personal space. They treat people on par though. They love and understand nature and animal kingdom.

Spiritual mission sent from above for the 2nd code people:

Stay as sincere and decisive as you are, giving up on doubts and trust the Universe deep down inside. Your wisdom and intuition can work wonders healing human souls. Trust your momenta and insights more often. You can gain access to what may seem impossible and unattainable by staying in tune with the Universe and openness towards the entire world. Give away your unconditional wisdom and warmth pro bono, expecting nothing in return, and what you give will be repaid hundredfold. Learn to trust and open up. Learn to accept and say yes to life. Plant good seeds wherever you go.

The best thing to do would be to overcome passivity, apathy and laziness. Smile, speak kind words and pay people compliments. Surround yourself with love, care and affection. Take a good care of your physical body, keep it toned and resilient. Physical strength will help you be more complete, overcoming ambivalence, lack of confidence and fears! Develop your unique healing skills, strengthen your intuition and do not be afraid to share your knowledge, depth and love of your soul.

... Among ruins and stones a flower of exceptional beauty is blooming. Do you know this strange guy? And how come it was able to break through these rocks to see the sunlight, let alone emitting such mysterious, intoxicating and alluring scent? It looks so fragile, yet it's done an unbelievable thing! The reason it has is because it had faith and wish to enjoy the Sun and the skies! So, let us always have faith in the Sun, joy, happiness and Universal love. Then we will be able to bloom where not a single flower has ever bloomed!

*A pretty stranger is guarding ancient cold...
A pretty flower's blooming on the ruins old...
I've no idea where it came from; still with warm wind gust
It sure will marvel at the sacred skies at last!...*

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

Improvement areas of the 2nd code (attitude/life approaches that need to be reworked and need your special attention) also known as unworked-out negative karma:

- the 2nd code people are distrustful, doubtful, whimsical and fickle
- often unsure and unhappy
- very secretive, having a hidden agenda, insincere, deceitful
- changing masks and roles, artistic and phoney
- very reserved and anti-social: with these people, you never know what they might have on their mind and things to expect from them
- unreliable, capable of letting you down in hour of need, staying indifferent
- controversial and dual personalities

- doubtful, hesitant, passive, inert and lazy
- covert leaders (Éminence grise)
- discuss people behind their backs, gossips.

Karmic how to's:

- get over laziness and low-key style
- learn to make a statement openly, taking off masks and stop playing other people's roles
- get to know laws of the Universe
- find point of harmony inside yourself

The 3rd code of the Destiny Matrix 22 codes©. The energy of ABUNDANCE and FERTILITY

Affirmation: I am the mistress of my destiny. I am the Empress. My female nature is blooming in me. I live in the energies of fertility and abundance. Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

The 3rd code – the energy of ABUNDANCE and FERTILITY.

*I govern my own well-being,
I am happy in my female meaning.
I am a good organizer.
I am a great mistress and mother and supervisor.
I am a merciful forgiver,
I am a clean-upper, a believer.
I am thankful to my destiny
That created me so blessedly.
God has given me the power
To be blooming like a flower!
I am beautiful and I am wise,
I can beautifully organize.
I will keep neat and tidy space
Both at home and work with grace.
People follow my advice;
I am powerful and wise.
I have mastered the art of assistance,
My command meets no resistance.
In creation lies my ambition,
Bringing warmth and comfort is my mission.*

People governed by this energy embody fertility and material riches of the Earth. Home, family, children, social status are top priority for them. They aim at leadership positions throughout their lives. Great managers and organizers. Women of this code are extremely feminine, queen-sort of type, they act like an empress. In Tarot cards that is the 3rd Arcanum card – the Empress. This code corresponds to Yin energy. For this reason, men born with the 3rd code find women's company nice and comfortable to stay in. They enjoy women's attention, often preferring housekeeping and doing daily chores as well as controlling and giving women "valuable" dos and don'ts. They are experts in many areas of interest for women and know them better than women do. If you ask this man a question about what women want, he will probably know the answer! In their lives, there is always likely to be a patroness. They keep a strong bond with their mother through their lives, asking her advice and sometimes being led by her. The mother's role can also be performed by their wives. In that case, for balance, this type of men will want to consciously work on developing their manliness, being proactive in life, learning to take responsibility and making decisions, staying authoritative with their family and dears.

The 3rd code is the energy of fertility and leadership. Usually, this type does their best to be leaders for others, grabbing attention, know and understand how to lead and attract people. The main criteria of self-actualization are financial stability, success, position in society. They like to be surrounded with beautiful things, appreciate taste in food and clothes, are often fashion experts. Their home is a hallmark of their success, which means both their car and home have to be in perfect shape and match the status of their wealthy and successful owner. Based on the above-said, the 3rd code people pay particular attention to the comfort of their home. Choosing a vacation spot, they will opt for a five-star hotel, while if a young 3rd code female was to choose a husband, she will prefer a well-off gentleman who has already a high social status and good perspectives for the future.

The 3rd code people are naturally fond of themselves with a real knack of taking a great care of their bodies just the way they treat their home and children. Good at housekeeping and managing finances, they are responsible, conscientious, homey home sort of people, preferring to solve their problems of their family members for them.

God has given women of the 3rd code great looks, charisma and femininity. They are good at earning money and money is coming to them. They find it easy to run their own business.

They have an eye for a profit. At their best, they are open-minded, kind and generous, very responsive and empathetic. Their life mission is to promote material wealth on Earth in any sphere of the world of the Matter to make life more prosperous and fruitful in all of its aspects, providing people with material riches and decent level of well-being. Their goal is to teach all people to prosper and thrive, to love Mother Earth and be grateful for all it gives us:

*I am a true woman in every sense:
I love my family and friends.
I like to manage my domain
And home which means to me the same.
I bring my children up with joy,
Control my life; I do enjoy.
Yet still I serve the good
Advancing for my perfect womanhood.*

*This woman is so strong
Her business going well lifelong.
It yields and pays her well and thrives
This how the empress lives her lives.
You'll know this is her –a mother and a wife–
She's pretty, smart and wicked rife.*

Spiritual mission sent from above for the 3rd code people:

*Aim to shine, aim to love, aim to be posh and work your mind.
Own all world treasures, Universe's riches, relishing your leisure.
Do let it go, bear no attachments, keep with the flow, set yourself free, find what is matching.
You are the Queen, all glory at your feet, within – open your heart and play a fair part.
Share with the world- those in hardship.
Make a nice start, your life is complete.
Reach all heights, live a high life.
Draw on the riches of wise Universe. They'll fill up your purse.
Share them with folks, give up on gloomy thoughts.
Stop anxious worries, shrug off your shoulders all those burdens that don't let you go.
Go with the flow, let the abundance energy flow.
Your kin is fine, let yourself shine.
They are protected and your job is sublime:*

*Care with a measure, care just with pleasure.
Believe in divine source, believe in good cause.
Treat all on par, create, you will go far!*

Bring people confidence in the future, explaining that Mother Earth is abundant and everybody deserves to enjoy prosperity. So, let abundance become your life domain. Sharing this knowledge with people fills you with light! Know that you are a true queen and remember that. Fair laws in your kingdom and wishing everyone good are your formula for success! Be the one you are destined to be; believe that Universe is limitless, reach the heights of prosperity. Serve as a model for those who lack confidence, prosperity, abundance, peace and beauty. Do your best to make life just a tiny bit better and you will contribute to general healing and abundance on the entire planet.

Any woman is a treasure, inspiring men to do great things and achieve prosperity for her. Any man is ready to throw all riches of the world to a genuine woman's feet.

A woman came into the hall and caught everyone's eye. Everybody froze.

What a way she walked in! My, what a way she glanced around! A whisper could be heard at once, "That is a Queen! Just look at her gorgeous dress!"

"How she holds herself! How she is walking, what manners! A real fairy she is!"

"How confident she looks, how immaculate her style seems, how stylish her hairdo is!"

No doubt, she is the centre of attention. She is spoken to with admiration!

No wonder, she is in the limelight. She is stared at with great delight!

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

Improvement areas of the 3rd code (attitude/life approaches that need to be reworked and need your special attention) also known as unworked-out negative karma:

- bossiness, pressure, excessive control over your children and relatives, arrogance, an attitude of superiority over others
- judging people by their social status and position and not by their inner qualities
- excessive fear and anxiety about your relatives, their lives, health, success
- imposing your view of life, your attitude
- demanding constant heightened attention to and care for yourself
- obsession with your appearance and material goods
- extreme desire to possess something or somebody
- attachment to material stuff
- placing material values over spiritual ones
- females dominating males, oppressing male energy
- too many expectations
- negative attitude to other women, disrespecting female nature
- problematic relationship with mother or daughter.
- pride.

Karmic how to's:

- withdraw excessive control over your relatives
- stop bossing around
- make sure that your speech flows smoothly, without imperatives

- move away from indignation and come to forgiveness and acceptance
- give freedom to grownup children at the right time and not preach to your young ones
- see independent personalities in them
- work on your feminine nature. Take care of your looks
- respect women around
- harmonize relationships with your mother and entire maternal lineage
- love nature, the Earth and cultivate this love in your children
- unlock your potential in society on executive positions
- manage and rule with peace and love in your heart
- grow spiritually and stop being obsessed with household routine and problems
- go easy on household chores, find time for yourself, your creativity and socializing outside family
- respect your partner without being overly controlling or domineering. Give space and freedom to your partner.

Recommended occupations/activities:

Business and management: administrators, maintenance and supply managers, matrons, governesses, maids, directors, house managers, superintendents, municipal clerks. Executive positions: school principals, directors of nursery schools, art schools, beauty salons. Chefs, confectioners, restaurant directors. Businessmen, entrepreneurs. Nail technicians (manicurists and pedicurists), hairdressers.

A woman's management is soft, respectful of the main principle to government on Earth, honouring the male principle. A woman's role on Earth is to inspire and support a man in his decision making and great deeds.

How she walked by, and how she looked. She must be truly a queen!

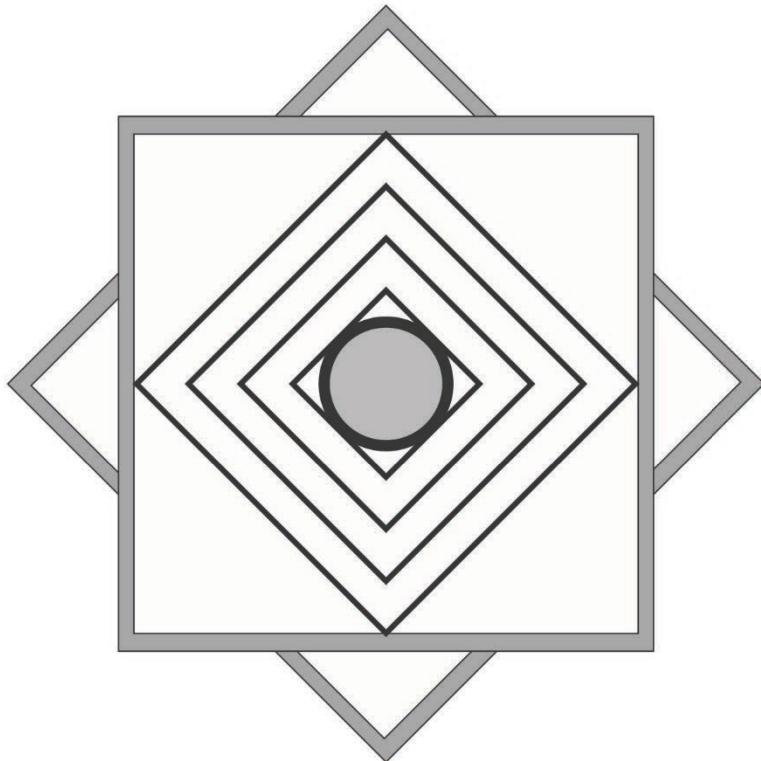

Celebrities born with the 3rd energy in their destinies:

Michael Schumacher (January 3, 1969), Vincent van Gogh (March 30, 1853), Diego Maradona (October 30, 1960), Alec Baldwin (April 3, 1958), Alexander Graham Bell (March 3, 1847).

The 4th code of the Destiny Matrix 22 codes©. The energy of AUTHORITY

Affirmation: I am in harmony with the male (female) half of the humanity. I am flowing in the prosperity of the Universe. My wellbeing is growing every day, and so is my physical power. Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

The 4th code

The 4th code – the energy of AUTHORITY.

*A man is mighty in his might
He guards his peace at home just like a knight.
He is a defender everywhere:
He's strong, and capable and fair.
Around people, at his place
He is a master and an ace!
He loves his family and home
He serves the global good and knighthood!*

The 4th code is the cardinal principle of structure and authority on Earth. It symbolizes Yang energy which is fire energy — a powerful, all-consuming energy of male characteristics on its own. This is the energy of decision making and taking responsibility, being able to account not only for yourself, but for many other people. Those given the energy of power by destiny have many doors and horizons open along the road of gaining leadership in society.

The 4th code people are very efficient and responsible, able to achieve and maintain order in everything, bring others under their control. They know how to manage people, assign tasks and ask for results. They have inborn masculine organizational skills. They are interested in governmental and political structure, and, thus, are often involved. It may seem, life itself places them to the forefront, providing all mechanisms of power. And it makes no difference whether these are small enterprises and state structures or top business. A fourth coder tends to exert their idea of order anywhere, controlling things in any business. They are said to have a God-given talent of a manager!

The 4th code's energy is stable and unshakeable. If a person makes a decision, they intend to stick to their guns, confidently moving forward. Their excellent inborn logic helps them achieve goals. Everything is structured and pigeonholed in their minds. Reliability and a strong shoulder, which they are ready to offer in hard times are typical characteristics of the 4th code people. Warrior strength, male power, resoluteness, good decision making and problem solving skills, firm belief in success, no place for fuss and panic are all positive qualities of the 4th code representatives:

*Charming is your smile,
Kind are your eyes.
Any woman will be yours
When you've opened all doors,
And your heart is all at peace,
You will both live at ease.
And your heart is all at peace
You will both live at ease.*

If the 4th code is present in a woman's life, she is recommended to work on her femininity, consciously lower her vibrations to the 3rd code, becoming aware of her male leadership skills, yet stay softer and more flexible, relaxed, liberated and uninhibited i.e. in tune with her feminine energy (learn how the 3rd code works). A sign of a strong male patron is present in her destiny. These women feel comfortable in male company. They often dress like men, have their hair cut short like men, prefer sports style, choose male jobs. "Cultivate a woman in yourself," the 4th code tells them, "and trust a strong man, who is a worth leader in your life."

Spiritual mission sent from above for the 4th code people:

You are a man, so you embody fire, and if you are fire, you are strong. Beware though: your inner fire must not burn to destroy all around — it is destined to create warmth, family hearth and get everyone together to heat themselves up by its friendly flames. Be it a traveller surmounting a road after a road, a vagabond wandering across the globe, a friend or part of your family who you love dearly and always happy to see. It is important for you to learn to see everyone by a common human principle — without playing favorites. True, you love your dears with a special love, but aren't they are the ones who are destined to warm by your fire anyway? Remember about your greatheartedness, sharing your warmth and love with all people around.

If you are a boss, do not hesitate to show interest in your employees, for they are, in the first place, individuals with a Divine soul. We are all children of God. Giving and taking, do your best to contribute to the common good and for the prosperity of our planet in acts of charity and assistance to those in need. Your mission on Earth is to exert authority peacefully, create and regulate things based on equality, justice and kindness principles. Prosperity and money will always be there. The attributes of power include your control over a material world: owning a good house, driving a great car, living with people who implement your ideas. With that, you are advised to respect people and learn to take them as they are. Let there be no room for judgmental ways or anger. Fair strictness, love and generosity are what your true power is all about. Be honest with yourself. See your path clearly. Accept help from the Universal higher forces and you will be able to accomplish things you genuinely believe in! All doors will open for you and a way, filled with light will be yours! God has given you power, so use it for the sake of good!

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

You are walking down the road. It is dark and drizzling; you're all soaked and freezing. Suddenly you see a hearth. People are sitting around in a circle and enjoying the warm fire. You wish to have a spot by this fire too. Now you know that God is there and you are not alone anymore. You feel you will be welcome and offered a spot in that circle. Now, imagine you are already sitting there, you feel fine and warm. Stars are lined and the Moon is shining reflected in the river. There you have forgotten all your sorrows, for this fire is going to cleanse it all absorbing all negative stuff with its heat. It is crucial that you feel its heat and support of the people sitting in the circle. You are a team now, united by the light of the fire, lighting up tiny little sparks in everyone's soul!

*I look into the tongues of fire burning.
In heaven up a brand new star was lit.
It flickers, flying in the space of years and yearning
My fear has just dissolved in golden blaze moonlit.
Grand is the moment when I am shining with this fire!
I'm speaking with my heart in that gold light,
"Fire, you are my Angel, and my friend and sire,*

*You give me peace and strength of spirit right.
You make me happy to be here with you —
Again, I've felt the unity of being, true.
And we are one, there is me in you,
And we are one, there is me and you."*

Improvement areas of the 4th code (attitude/life approaches that need to be reworked and need your special attention) also known as unworked-out negative karma:

- tyranny, rigidity, cruelty towards the weak and subordinate
- unwillingness to acknowledge someone's authority, still being authoritarian
- excessive control over your relatives, imposing your own rules
- depriving people of their own right to choose and be free
- unwillingness to understand
- callous nature, materialism, all goals about money and power only
- resorting to all means to gain power, abusing power
- wishing to take more than give
- restrained in expressing your feelings, shut off personality
- a fear of taking a responsibility, unwillingness to make your own decisions
- dependence on authorities
- inability to accept the material world and earn money
- a gap between spiritual and material values; inability to balance these two worlds
- problematic relationship with your father and male half of humanity
- hostile attitude
- narrow mindedness
- inability to yield
- false pride.

Karmic how to's:

- withdraw excessive control over your life
- learn to let it go, give space and freedom to people around, your family. Grow spiritually
- stop bossing around and imposing your point of view
- develop your intuition and hear your heart's voice
- remember to rule with love and peace
- be able to forgive, accept, be grateful and yield
- advance to your goals at ease and using no pressure
- take care of your physical body and enjoy little things. Be thankful for all you have
- do not think about your own prosperity only but also about that of all people on the planet
- shun conservatism and narrow-mindedness
- stop demanding from others. Your main focus should be on yourself.

Recommended occupations/activities:

The 5th code of the Destiny Matrix 22 codes©. The energy of LAW

Affirmation: My Spiritual Teacher guides me through my life. We stay sincerely connected. My teacher is directing me to the true knowledge I possess and acquire.

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

The 5th code

The 5th code – the ENERGY OF LAW:

*Life is a gift and the school.
We are travelers following its rules.
Our mentors are people around
Helping us gain wisdom from things we have found.
When you look at others,
Try to recognize yourself.
Remember you are watched and fathered
Like the elf on the shelf.*

*Life offers us knowledge
To learn from this boundless storage:
A situation is a seed,
It will sprout once you plant it and feed.
It will bear fruit and reveal the truth,
Your fears and doubts will be soothed.
All things are lessons, grasp them in
And God will love you from within.*

The 5th code is all about following laws, orders, various customs and traditions. People born with the number 5, do their best to heed all sorts of rules and traditions: family traditions, laws of society and religious orders. Everything that has been set up by authorities or 5th code or themselves, matters to them. In life, they seek knowledge confirmed by scientific research, which proves their choice is solid and accurate. They find it difficult to plunge into adventures — their principles will not let them. Family and bringing up children play a crucial role in their lives. They are fond of teaching, because of their natural gift and oratory skills. They enjoy convincing and persuading others, genuinely think that their opinions and beliefs are unambiguously correct and that there can be no other ways and decisions.

The 5th code people are great orators, public speaking comes easy to them, and they learn the skills fast. Addressing any audience is their forte and calling. They prefer applying scientific approach to anything, trying to logically analyse and calculate, as well as convince others they are right. Throughout their whole life, they enjoy learning, acquiring new knowledge, working in a team, embracing leading and executive positions. On learning new things, they are eager to share them with others. They find it important to bring their thoughts and beliefs to people. The 5th coders often choose jobs dealing with law and order or end up teaching or boosting a scientific career.

Reliable, responsible, order-oriented, knowing how to direct and manage and having inborn oratory and teaching skills, the 5th code people live guided by their own clear-cut beliefs and principles, often cornering themselves in the framework of their own logical thinking and worldview. Sometimes it takes them a while to adjust their mindset to life changes. Their fixed principles slow them down, creating obstacles and limitations and thus, narrow-mindedness. It is of great importance that they might rethink their views and work on expanding their mind. Learning to accept the world and life in their diversity, respond to different points of view adequately, and to perform experiments, which renew life, more often would be a great thing to do.

They will benefit from trusting the Universe's guidance and protection unconditionally. They are always faithful people and protect those who love, care for and help. They are self-sufficient active and influential for other people.

Spiritual mission sent from above for the 5th code people:

*My teacher stay by me!
It's next to you I wish to be.
Let my star glow and let the glow spread.
I want to kneel down and bow my head
Before your wisdom like a flower,
That opens its petals to the sun's power.
The secret of the whole has been unlocked,
A hundred miles we have together walked.
We have roads and path to tread
The world I want to love and eat the bread.
Learning is life, I want its light
To cover me at daytime and at night.
Light's wisdom I would like to master,
To learn it always and learn it faster.
So, let your hand direct me where
I should keep going with a prayer.
You helped me wake up, find my way,
And follow through it, like God's ray.
My teacher, will you please stay near?
Inside I feel your lightened sphere.
I love you, God,
I feel your love.
Your divine grace
I will embrace.*

It is important for you to share all knowledge you have. You may find it easy to share your experience — you are born leaders, directors and teachers, people of law and order; you have been given an ability to keep, change and upgrade traditions, customs and rules, control things and teach people. Life is changing rapidly, thus, society requires those changes as well. You can bring in new vision and understanding where the upgrades are most needed. If you open your heart to the Universe, Heaven will send new knowledge and vision on Earth with your help, and your oratory and persuasion skills will deliver the ideas to masses of people. These days humanity needs new spiritual knowledge and your mission is to be susceptible to it, becoming flexible in your consciousness and thinking, move away from outdated principles, and having filled your heart and soul with love, carry this light of the Universe to people. If you are able to open yourself to this process, to each of you your own way and own vision will come, you will understand things you can change and where you can carry the light of new ideas. Everyone has their own way.

To be heard by others, you must work out your incomplete negative karma of the 5th code. Then your every word will be your own life experience, validated by the energy of any personal action you take as a response to life changes. Then you will be heard, then your every word of yours will have meaning and will be energy-filled. It is very important that you practice what you preach. Remember about the freedom of will of every person living on Earth!

There are different ways of speaking: it can be a chat with a person, a recommended book discussion or attending a seminar, it can also be a story about your own published books with new ideas for people of the planet or it can be a movie you produced or a public lecture, running seminars and classes too.

Thus, do stay open, get changed, change your outdated views, do not hold on to the past, move forward bravely. Many people are there wishing to hear you. And many people will pay attention to your unique and amazing journey, although at first it will be hard to believe that you have managed to change so much. But the Universe has faith in you and has all the necessary message and support. Just discover it, open your heart, mind and soul! Give up all your doubts and insecurity and move on. You can become a live illustration for many others.

Your personal life experience will inspire people to change their minds and understand the laws of being. You are the one able to contribute to people's awakening to a new vision, provided that you wake up yourself. You are part of changing outdated laws to brand new ones.

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

You are walking down the road of life. While looking under your feet, it might feel you have lost your way. But then you look up in the Sky. Right there you see stars overhead. Then you start looking around and notice there are mountains, fields and seas. You are moving confidently on further, passing different cities. You are learning new stuff all the time, acquiring new knowledge and skills. While you are travelling, while in motion, it's life itself you are learning from: the Universe is offering you its knowledge. And then, on one of the roads, you meet an old man with eyes so deep that you cannot go past him. So, you ask him questions, but he is giving no answers... He is just looking into your soul. Suddenly it occurred to you that you have come back to yourself!

*Lost in the crowd I will seek
The hidden treasure of the world...
I'll wander, master things and speak
About what is really worth...*

Improvement areas of the 5th code (attitude/life approaches that need to be reworked and need your special attention) also known as unworked-out negative karma:

- stiff resistance to new things, outdated view of life, your constant urge to lecture people, imposing your views and principles
- tendency to judge people by their IQ: "smart" or "dumb"
- wishing to dominate and rule, being convinced you are always right
- desire to argue and prove your point, inability to find compromise
- false pride
- finding it difficult to yield, step aside, admit being wrong

- judgemental attitude, aggression
- obsession with your family and relatives. Wanting to solve their life problems for them and control them. Teach them “the right way to live.” Interfering in others’ lives.
- self-consciousness, doubtfulness, fear of being looked down on and not understood
- being obsessed with order and cleanliness
- too many expectations from others.

Karmic how to's:

- give up on your stiffness, conservatism and conviction that you are always right and know everything for everyone
- be able to explain, talk, bring knowledge with love, avoid moralizing
- watch your speech, speak calmly, without preaching
- recognize knowledge and branches of different mentors and teachers
- let go of control over your family, give them independence and freedom of choice in their own decision making
- respect other people's choices, even if they differ from yours
- strengthen your intuition and follow your heart as well as your intellect
- accept variety of the world and leave a rigid framework and conservatism behind
- stop setting your own rules and ways only
- serve an example of respectability and positive thinker
- learn to think and view life positively
- enjoy learning, on having accumulated knowledge, pass it on, become a teacher for others
- take on leadership roles in society.

Recommended occupations/activities:

Educational jobs in any expertise and any educational institution. Legal jobs: lawyers, attorneys, judges. Jobs in business: directors, managers, entrepreneurs, accountants, economists. Jobs in stock market, brokerage. Real estate agents. Jobs in science, programming, IT. Psychology: family counsellors, registry office clerks, social workers. The 6th code – the energy of RELATIONSHIP

*Love provides a timeless choice:
By heaven, we are given it for growth,
Love blinds us with divine cherubs,
Love fills us with happiness and up.
Love carries a task, it always does
To those in love it always comes.
And be it so but not otherwise,
We'll plunge our heads into its lows and highs.
We relish its bliss and delight,
Feeling blissed and feeling right.
Do fall in love, give yourselves in,
Burning the bridges of sin.
Get to the bottom of love essence
Explore the mazes of its presence...
Live through your love, discover its depths,
And float within its vast and rich breadth...
In your love, try to rise in spirit.
Drive your love chariot, carefully steer it.
Love is the mirror of your own soul
You learn how to live with it, reaching your goals.
Love has its highways and its small lanes.
Watch for pedestrians, carts and late trains.
They're like an open book written for you
Read them, get to know love, love is true.
Should we fear changes, love is all gone.
Love comes around, a new life is born.
When love is there, the past does not stay:
Chains fall apart; you make your own way.
If you shall hold on to material riches
If you are still hoping to put a few stiches:
Living in the trap-world of mistakes,
For love, there will be hardly any space.
And if you show fears to any changes
Money, power, looks of perfect strangers...
Your risk is drowning in your own bog
Which, no matter how swampy, is still home ... to a frog...
Love is yours, so share it — money, sorrows, moonlight...
Share with your loved one every day and night.
But if one decides to live in self-torture:
Neither happy here, nor loved there, no fortune...
Then swampy air surrounds a happy soul
And love is gone, it dies, and gone is happy goal.
It can, however, happen so...
That there will be found no
Solution and love will die,*

*Attached, the soul will just stand by.
 Swamped, we even might enjoy the comfort;
 The threat is gone, your body in encumbered.*
*The soul is still, asleep and freezing
 Deprived of feelings that once had risen.
 The soul will, though, wake up and nudge
 For you to give up on your sweet sludge.*
*For life is moving on, so do move on!
 Love is the essence so let the past be gone.*
*But life on Earth is quite a challenge:
 Checklists, dos and don'ts, how to manage?*
*Time goes by...We get old. We feel cold.
 Love and happy time are trapped...They get sold.*
*So, set them free, set yourself free!
 For God gave you love, let yourself be!
 Love lends you wings, you feel inspired,
 To take off, fly, and you fly up high.*
*To reach out to the goal you are now rising,
 You are becoming so much wiser.*
*Trying to regain your happiness and fortune,
 Light comes to you if you are searching.*

The 6th code unveils the energy of human interaction, communication and sensuality. People with the 6th code find it easy to talk and meet new people; they have a great number of friends and contacts, they are nice, sweet and well-mannered. They try to win people over, troubleshoot and smooth things over. They are attracted to bright, glitzy, and elegant stuff; they are art and beauty connoisseurs with an excellent, refined taste; often being food gourmets. Love is an indivisible part of their life. It is vital to love — that's all they do and direct their attention to.

The 6th code people try to surround themselves with beautiful things, sweet people, and a cool job. They pay special attention to the exterior, to aesthetics, which is why they have such an excellent taste. They are trendsetters in everything; tend to see beauty and try to follow their own standards and perception: take care of themselves and their looks, pick their clothing thoroughly. Children with the 6th code can never be made to go out to play wearing what they hate to wear. They could throw a tantrum, but will never go out looking “ugly”.

Public opinion matters a lot to that kind of people: what people will say, how they will look, what kind of impression they will make and so on. They are artistic by nature, enjoy life and energy of admiration. No matter where they go, they attract attention, becoming the life and soul of any party. Emotional and amorous, they like to impress other people. If they get involved into a relationship they do that with all of their heart and soul, experiencing all emotions deeply.

Their home is usually cosy and beautiful, they like to have visitors, being hospitable. They are also eager participants at festivities and parties. They hate solitude. The festive atmosphere of fireworks, beauty and socializing is a vivid characteristic of the 6th coders. That is why, they get sad and bored when those things are absent in their life for too long. It is vital for them to draw on the energy of inspiration, joy and flight from the outer world, and, naturally, to learn to create this energy inside themselves!

Spiritual mission sent from above for the 6th code people:

*Love, you are a transforming force!
Of gentle warmth you are the source.
In love, I find my true devotion,
In love, I cherish every motion.
My love, you are my true light!
These little moments bring me delight.
My love surrounds me and heals.
My love is special and ideal.*

You have a natural eye for beauty and taste of feast of life. True unconditional love is born in joy and light — love for everything made by Creator on our planet. Try to focus your attention on positive qualities of people; give up on criticism and aggression you might feel when dealing with something you might find indecent. Try work out a skill to think positively in any circumstances in your mind; learn to accept the world as a whole in its variety of shades: dark and light, black and white.

Study the Law of being to finally stop reacting negatively to negative human actions/ways. Be honest and sincere with yourself. Love yourself unconditionally. Try to give up idealizing all things related to the externalization of the world. Work hard on working out something better yet not ideal — for nothing is perfect — those are rose-coloured glasses that stop people from seeing and accepting the world in its variety of shades.

Trust in love of God and of the Universe. Open your heart to highest expressions of Unconditional Love, Love from the Universal Source, which does not love for merits, but unconditionally, and there cannot be any other way. It is Love indeed! Avoid labelling things, people, actions, events, relationships. Learn to see beyond the exterior in people, appreciating their inner qualities. Turn your life into a feast, but first discover it within your natural state of joy, ease and happiness, that of Unconditional Love and non-attachment to the material world. You can help people become more beautiful, easy-going and happy, get them to believe in miracles and magic, laugh, joke, smile. It is just amazing to see as many happy faces as possible, promoting party moods across the globe!

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

*Love is the greatest gift.
Love has the greatest value, don't thrift!
Love will tell you its story
Win the warmth back for the planet's old glory.
Happy is the one who discovers
The depths of the meaning what love is.
So, hit those highways of love,
Getting your guidance from above.
Love is what all we need.*

*Nothing will move without it.
With love, renewal will come
To everyone under the Sun!*

The 6th code people seek love in everything. Love is the main motivation of their whole life and creativity.

At dawn, an edelweiss popped its head up. This is a mountain flower, it is beautiful unconditionally, for God created it that way. It turned its little head towards the Sun and sang a joy song, "I am so happy living here and blooming!" Then a butterfly landed on it. The butterfly sniffed the edelweiss, its beauty and joy, and rejoiced along, "I feel wonderful! I can fly free!" At last, a traveler walked by and came up to the flower, looked at it and felt happy too. He said, "What God-made beauty!" The traveller filled his heart with that beauty, and the flower stayed, spreading even more happiness and joy because it was able to inspire others!

*Rejoice, Rejoice, Rejoice,
Hail and rejoice each day!
Make a positive choice
Pushing all sorrows away.*

*Rejoice, Rejoice, Rejoice
Say yes to the kind Universe.
Discover your brand new happy voice
Let it speak out with your own verse!*

However, the focal point of the 6th code is relationship between a man and a woman and their partnership. People open their souls to love through the energy of the 6th code, while love always entails making a choice and going through changes. Stay grateful to love — if it's in your life, it has an important task for you. Always welcome love with your open heart and gratitude, experience love and try to understand why you were blessed with it. True love always leads to evolution:

*Love is yours, so share it — money, sorrows, moonlight...
Share with your love every day and night.
But if one decides to live in self-torture:
Neither happy here, nor loved there, no fortune...
Then swampy air surrounds happy soul
And love is gone, it dies, and gone is happy goal.*

So, open your hearts towards relationship and love. "Should you not feel love for even a day, the day has been lived in vain — you are asleep. And should you sleep long, life passes by!" So why not let ourselves enjoy living, breathe freely and staying inspired every single moment?

A man glanced at a woman, their eyes met, a heat wave came over them, and they understood, this is it!

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

The 7th code of the Destiny Matrix 22 codes©. The energy of MOTION and WINNER

Affirmation: I move easily towards my goals which are in tune with the Universal Divine plan. Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

The 7th code – the energy of MOTION and WINNER:

*I wish to travel in my chariot,
Exploring every corner of the globe.
I want to move my dream down my way and carry it
Until the highway meets the sky.
Oh, Mother-Earth, you are sweet home
Wherever I may want to go!
This home feels joyful, spacious, free
Where I'm as handy as I can be.
Your soul fills up my heart with joy
And takes my breath away, oh boy!
Just look at you – your riches are so prime
With mountains, fields and seas – they are all mine!*

The 7th code people are absolute leaders, with energy of a warrior aiming to win and achieve goals they set for themselves. They are independent and find solutions to their problems on their own. They are the ones steering the chariot of their own destiny. It is crucial to understand and know their destination. They are result-oriented. Drawing up business plans for the near future is something the 7th coders find quite helpful, since it makes it easier to concentrate and focus their attention on the right direction to avoid futile steps.

Motion is what these people are focused on. They usually drive all sorts of vehicles well enough, are fond of travelling, being easy-going, optimistic type with an active life position. However, they can often be in the mood for fighting when as they tend to divide the world into good and bad, black and white or refuse to understand the Universal laws. Inertia leads to stagnation in their life and physical body, so they are not only recommended to train their spirits, but also their bodies, strengthen their skeletal system and keep their joints flexible. These people are total workaholics, which is why they should practice relaxation and meditation techniques, switch from active to passive activities, learn to relax their body and soul. They will benefit from doing fitness, sports, and choosing active ways of spending free time. Their ideas can easily inspire others and lead them, serving as a proactivity role model. Their self-actualization is very important. These people are very persistent, resolute, great at starting new ventures over again, even after a failure, every time hoping for a successful outcome to achieve their goals. They are decisive, do not tend to hesitate for too long. If they have a plan they go for it:

*Stand up and move!
Move to heaven, to eternal spring.
Move on gladly, flap your wings,
Go find out where happiness lives
Fly to your joy, to love and bliss
Enjoy the flight, enjoy all this.
In passionate motion
Get going, cross the ocean.
Explore the way.
Get going, move,*

*Let doubt fade.
Get going, move,
To love and light,
Get going, move,

Spiritual mission sent from above for the Motion and Winner people:

*Fast motion is the essence of your soul.
In motion, you are brave achieving all your goals.
Move on, keep moving, live in motion,
And find your own current in eternal ocean.
A road is there for you to hit;
Fear not! That path is always lit!
When you have set your brand new goals
God will be there to guide your soul.
Move on, give thanks to the Creator
For your soul He is perfect navigator.*

You are blessed with the energy of a victory; thus, do be able to use it for the good of all people on the Planet. You have great potential, thus, you can lead people. Let your goals be just a little bit higher, more spiritual and attractive than your projection now. Start a diary or planner, writing in things you want to achieve. Be consistent and patient, move in the direction of your goal at ease and effortlessly, supported by the Universe. In your plans, try to steer clear of entering your personal wish list only, but one for other people's good. What bright ideas could you use to inspire many people's hearts! Learning to meditate will be helpful to get interesting ideas.

So, move on, engage in your favourite kinds of active sports. Be a role model of a proactive and vivacious person. Tell people about your life position, about the results achieved. Share your experience, stay open. Your optimism will inspire many others and they too, will start moving down their way of self-actualization. Draw up a map of your dreams, tell other people about it.

Share your positive experience and your luck will be accompanied by gratitude of other people for your energy of inspiration. Plant the seeds of kindness and like-minded people will be there for you. Your destiny will take on an even greater meaning and you will find inspiration both from your social and spiritual actualization. If you connect your ideas with the Universal energy, it will show its best to you. So, go for it, set ambitious goals and achieve them, setting an example of inspiration! Live a bright life, and the sparkle of your star will light up many people's paths in the dark of their lives!

You are walking down your life path and it is long, light and wide so and you are the one steering the chariot of your destiny. You come across two young thumb riders on your way: a man and a woman. You pick them up. They start sharing their traveling experience to faraway lands, freedom stories, and you fail to notice how fast time flies by. You drop them off at their destination. They are gone, but you end up with the vague air of their travels and freedom, wonderful ease and a state of bliss. The ease and non-attachment brings about those thrilling and fantastic experiences thinking of which we may be like, "Oh it can't have happened! It's just unbelievable!" But anything is achievable! It is simply the Universal amazing grace showing up in us!

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

Improvement areas of the 7th code (attitude/life approaches that need to be reworked and need your special attention) also known as unworked-out negative karma:

- using force to suppress and inhibit others, controlling your family members
- inability to relax, excessive activity, leading to nervous breakdowns and overtension
- using any means to achieve goals
- stirring conflicts and wars
- leading people down wrong paths
- tardiness habits
- taking life as a battlefield, thus, creating obstacles on your way.

Karmic how to's:

- your life is moving forward towards your goals, so overcome passivity and laziness
- rule your life on your own
- find inspiration, and having done so, lead others
- get rid of hostility and aggression
- learn to be in charge peacefully
- your aims and plans are as important to you as to many others
- striving for victory, be guided by high intentions and ideals for the common good
- you are a team leader, so do not be afraid to take responsibility
- it is important you trust yourself and your victory
- make sure you study the law of materialization
- be a positive thinker and do not drop the reins of power for the chariot not to go off the road
- do inspire, rather than dominate to force push your way through
- work on aggression through forgiveness, acceptance and your heart open to love
- strengthen your intuition.

THE SEVEN CODES (ENERGIES) OF THE SOUL WORLD

The 8th code introduces the seven energies of the soul world which is our emotional domain with all our emotions, including those of excitement and sadness. The ability to give and accept love. The world of the soul is our fine appreciation. It is a spark of God inside each of us. We are all one and equal in terms of the world of the soul. Depending on how the world of the soul codes come out, we experience a particular emotion: joy, love, disappointment, fear, excitement, inspiration, anger, resentment, empathy, sympathy, freedom, harmony, etc. A human soul either sparks or it feels burdened.

The 8th code of the Destiny Matrix 22 codes©. The energy of JUSTICE and BALANCE

Affirmation: The Divine justice is being revealed to me. I comprehend the law of cause and effect. I am in balance.

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

The 8th code – the energy of Justice and Balance:

*My soul is singing living in the instant,
The here now, the art of our existing:
It's filled with joy and so inspiring,
For us, the world is opening and untiring!
There is no good or evil, there is no dark or light
But there are always ways of our honest stride.
Blurred are the bounds of taboos and fears,
And so is the sense of loss and miseries.
This thought is given for us to wake up
From misperceptions, blindness and breakups.
The truth is love gives recovery of sight,
Helping us accept the laws of wrong and right.
We will discover the universal law,
We will learn the truth of life.
There is no good or evil, nor there's war,
You are right, and so am I, without strife.
Why seek the truth in punishment?
Why scold, rebuke and cause diminishment?
It is time we realized it's God Who reigns
His power we accept and gain,
Thus, moving with its flow,
Seek victory and glow.*

The 8th code opens the gate to the Seven energies of the Soul World, and how well we understand and accept the true Universal law of being will determine how burdened or enlightened the qualities of our soul are, and consequently, of all the following seven codes in these Seven codes.

If we turn number eight 90 degrees, it will be an infinity sign, and thus, the roots of the 8th code go back into the distant past, so the 8th code people are connected with karmas of their previous incarnations via invisible energy threads. The 8th coders are ones to deeply see, sense and understand the karmic law of justice. What we see when an event happens is the result of emotions, thoughts and actions we experienced before. All things in real life come to us for a reason, which is why nothing ever happens by chance, all of it is the cause and effect law. It is the 8th code people who find it easier to understand this law, discern it in their life events, and consequently learn to see it in other peoples' lives. The 8th code people always wonder, "Why does this happen to me? What is the real cause of a certain problem? And what can I do today so that my life changes tomorrow?"

They are given a chance to work on improving their karma all the time. They take interest in different ways of improving destiny, attend various courses and workshops. In their everyday life, they are overly responsible, try to act fairly, demanding justice from others too, which is why they can seem hot-tempered and vulnerable type.

The 8th code people get involved whenever a situation needs looking into, and they stand up for the weak. They are open, friendly, fearless, able to quickly react in difficult situations. They are decisive in extreme situations. They can be relied on and trusted an important work. They often work in law and order organizations, and internal revenue service. It is important for them to understand the true karmic law in order not to react to its everyday manifestations so strongly. The 8th code people are better not try not and interfere where this is not needed. When studying the Universal laws, the 8th code people will be able to shed light on any situation, even on the most difficult one. They will be able to help because they are always help-oriented. To learn to discern the truth is their major karmic task.

Spiritual mission sent from above for the justice people:

*The world is versatile and great,
With plenty of actors that create
An array from glowing love to burning pain,
Of both shadows and beauty, a domain
Where lower forms swirl in the night
Where higher ones dance in pure light.
This all comes from God, just know,
The world is all one and whole.*

*What has been sent to you – accept.
Do not blame or fret.
The priceless lesson
Is for you to learn.
No matter how much you yearn
For division
Into good and evil ways
The collision –
They are imaginary anyway.
All around is the love of God
We live by this law that's all that we've got.
We are learning it.
We are following it!*

You have the gift to deeply connect with the Universal law, the law of cause and effect relationships. This is your inborn skill, it is your destiny to be able to discern the true cause of a certain event happening in your life or life of other people. Thus, you are recommended to study the law of cause and effect, the Universal law; understand karmic rules by which events materialize or get attracted into your life. You have the talent for deep understanding and seeing things. Develop your skills of intuitive seeing and knowing. Meditate. Learn the Q & A techniques through meditation and connection with the Universe.

Try to move away from worldly, everyday justice, stop arguing and proving whatever there is to prove. Maintain positive thinking and vision. In every event, try to see a positive lesson to learn. See your life and problems as a part of a learning process, from which you can reap benefits, becoming wiser and eventually, more spiritual. Try to bring the truths of karmic laws to people. Realize the reality of previous incarnations and the experience your soul has collected throughout those incarnations. Be open to new knowledge, learn things and develop, and boundless opportunities to learn the truth will open up to you. The ability to heal every life situation and event will open to you.

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

Karma can be compared to scales – if you ever happened to give a greater preference to something, you have placed a greater weight on one pan of the karmic scales, thus, the other pan has turned over and the balance was upset. There was a karmic lesson to learn for you at that point. It is a good thing if you realized being wrong. But what if that did not happen? Then the balance could not be regained, and your life has capsized, things were not going well, everything went upside down. Nothing can be done about it, this is how karmic laws work.

So, try to stay away from blaming people or circumstances, dividing the world into good or bad, and then your scales of karma will regain balance. Harmony will come back to you. The lesson will be learnt. Forgiveness, love, world acceptance and seeing people as they are will help you. And so will understanding that everything that comes to your life is God, for God is everything there is out there!

Without understanding karmic laws, it is difficult to stay positive in the 8th code. Fighting for justice will go on:

This is so and not otherwise – for it must be.

You decide who your friends will be and who won't stay with thee,

How we should spend our time, how we should live.

What we should take, what we need to give...

We are the ones to decide how to come to the truth,

This is so and not otherwise, we cannot break the rules.

The cause and effect law of being:

There is you, there is them, there is me.

There is everything we are given

On our way to exhort.

Only then we will be forgiven

With God's blessing,

With God's help and support.

Improvement areas of the 8th code (attitude/life approaches that need to be reworked and need your special attention) also known as unworked-out negative karma:

- judgemental attitude, struggle, argument
- resentful ways, whining, complaining that life is unfair, life is hard
- hot temper, aggression, depression
- falling into the same trap scenario, making identical mistakes and situations, unwillingness to learn lessons from them and self- develop
- unwillingness to change, pride
- loss of balance, extravagance, the absence of the Middle Way
- unwillingness to develop spiritually and learn the true laws of existence
- vengefulness, pride. Stubbornness
- seeing the causes of their life events and problems in the outer world, rather than in themselves

- blaming others.

Karmic how to's:

- stop diving the world into good and evil, black and white
- study the law of cause and effect, the law of karma
- stop seeing the causes of events taking place in your life in the outer world. Try to see those coming out from your inner world, from your world projection
- move away from struggling for justice or against something. Affirm ideas you would wish to see come true (rather than fight against war- stand up for peace)
- try to stick to the principle of balance and the golden mean. Avoid extremes
- know that the principle of boomerang operates in the Universe. (Everything comes back to you)
- try to keep the emotional balance
- work on acceptance, forgiveness, and unconditional love
- remember that there is not a single event in your life that happens for no reason. God's justice is present in all events
- work on your self-improvement, heal your karma
- remember that there is no injustice at all. Everything is always just from laws of karma point of view.

Recommended occupations/activities:

Jobs in legal and governmental structures, justice, tax officer, court enforcement officer, or army soldier. Paperwork jobs, economics, accounting, finance, and business. They make good office workers, workers of state enterprise, executives. Sales jobs. Specialists karmic psychology, healing, destiny improvement, fortune-telling, esoterics, karmic healing.

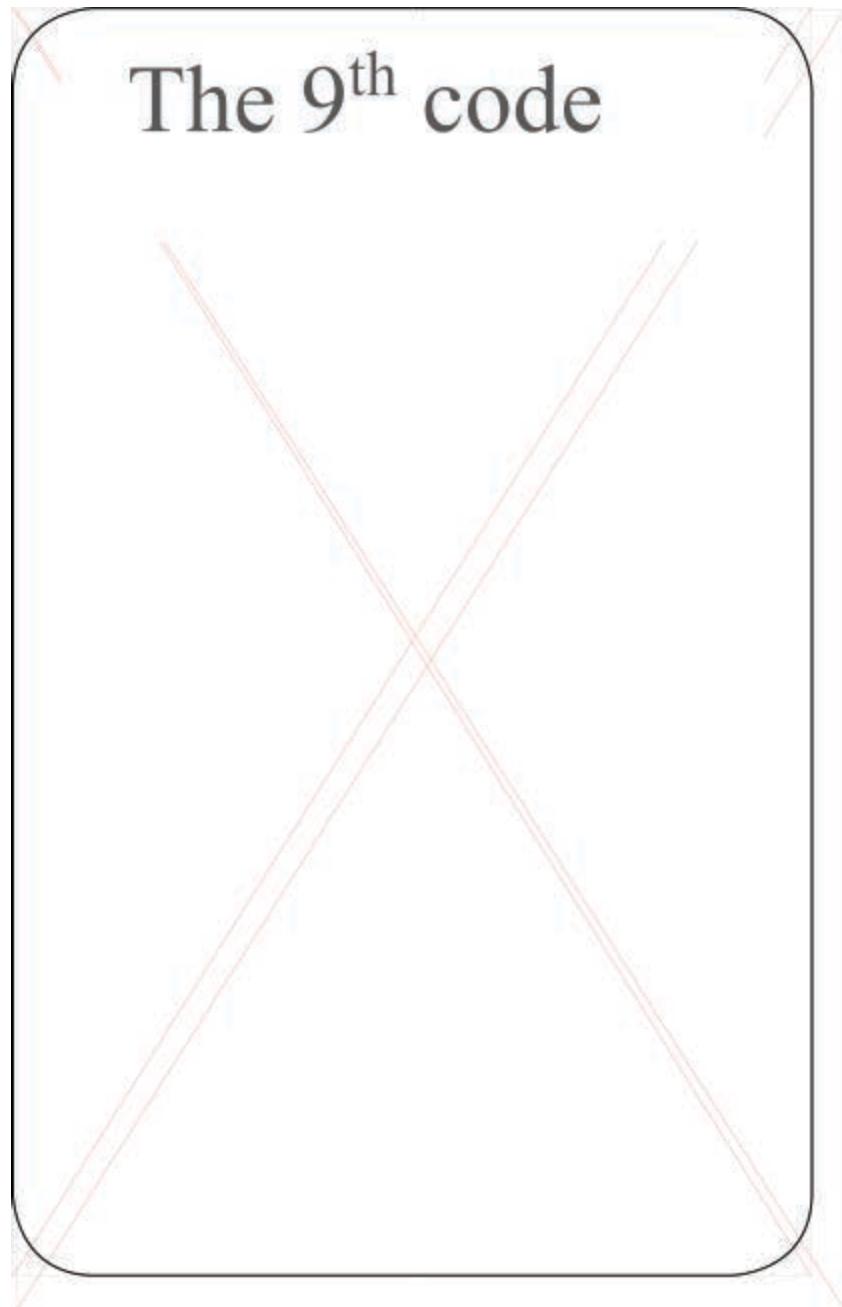

Celebrities born with the 8th energy in their destinies:

Elvis Presley (January 8, 1935), Marcus Aurelius (April 2, 0121), Christopher Columbus (August 26, 1451), Victor Marie Hugo (February 26, 1802), Mother Teresa (August 26, 1910).

The 9th code of the Destiny Matrix 22 codes©. The energy of WISDOM and HERMIT

Affirmation: Wisdom is coming to me. I am in the healing flow of things that need to be healed. I have been healed.

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

The 9th code – the energy of Wisdom and Hermit:

*My inner light knows no bounds,
I am happy to share the truth.
I will listen to the Universe sweet sounds,
Finding the answers to all questions ruth.*

*The truth is everywhere,
Covering our Mother Earth.
To me that's the sacred air
Wisdom is my right for growth.*

The 9th code people are self-contained and possess inborn wisdom. Their advice is always sought for, their opinion is listened to. Their point of view matters to others. They do not like loud companies. These people have philosophical worldview. Whatever they learn, they like to go deep. They do not rush or fuss. They feel comfortable on their own and never get bored. Being self-contained is what makes them different from others. They like reading books and learning new things. They are better than others at science, they are pioneers in many areas of science. They earn money using their brains, intellect, rather than their hands. They are often unable to do physical, manual work.

They empathise with other peoples' pain, they know what it takes to be a good listener and show people the way out of a difficult situation. They make good healers of body and mind. The 9th code people are very meticulous when it comes to choosing their life partner. If they do fall in love, they stay faithful to this person for long. The depth of their feelings is hidden from outer expression, so they might seem cold and shut off, but it is not so. They are tender, caring, and compassionate, the thing is they just do not tend to open up their hearts to everybody. In solitude, the innermost thoughts and insights come to them. When alone, these people rest and recover the potential of energy spent before, so do not take offence when they seem distant. They will "come back to the outer world" when they are ready. To win over an hermit's heart and friendship means to gain a reliable friend, who is ready to help in all kinds of challenges. The 9th code people do not try to keep a high profile, but they approach their duties with great responsibility. They do not like authoritative management, they can work on their own, depending on no one. They can also run their own business as well. They are scrupulous and attentive in all matters. Normally they do not get married hastily, rather, first they want to settle down, become financially independent, finish their education. Late marriages are frequent among this type. They love nature, animals, enjoy a friendly stroll with their pets.

The 9th code people like to take down their philosophical thoughts, so they often make good poets, writers and artists. If something fascinates them, they can work it out quickly and easily provided they dedicate their time and direct their thoughts to this. They are versatile and skilful in all professional areas. Moreover, their intelligence and wisdom help them learn any skills, even the most difficult ones for many other people. They learn well and are very good at teaching as well. There are genuine hermits among them – people who retire to monastery life from the fuss and routine of the physical world. Sages often adopt an ascetic lifestyle, they can renounce bodily and material pleasures or just make do without them effortlessly and for a long time.

*Things you seek on the outside
Exist on the inside.
The soul keeps you inspired.
To Heaven, open your door and...stride!
To love, open your door,
To love that the Earth's looking for.
If you love – do, if you risk – do,
To the sacred peak you could dare, find the clue.
Give all you can give and accept the bliss,
Discover a new life in your soul's sweet peace.*

*Its moments are divine–
Share them with your heart benign.
Find your true path and right way,
Follow those, don't darken your day.
Even when temptation sounds great,
Give, heal, bless, love and create,
And so will open the Divine gate.*

You are granted a spark of wisdom and you attract people who need help healing their soul. You are inclined to say the right words, offer useful advice, give a willing ear and show compassion. Your destiny is to share this light with people, be open and empathetic. You have an inborn gift of healing. You can heal with words. So, use this gift for everyone's good. Watch how you talk. Light up faith and hope in people, inspire people to love every living being on Earth.

Write down your thoughts, spend more time outdoors. Nature inspires you, it replenishes you. Do not retire from the world or stay on your own for too long. Open up your soul to people around. Give up excessive caution and distrust. Maintain positive thinking and do not be afraid of taking responsibility, you will succeed in every little thing you do. You can become sensitive to energies of the Universe if you learn to meditate and communicate with God and Higher forces directly. Then you will gain knowledge you will be able to use for the sake of people. Do not only develop good thinking skills, but your intuition and sensitivity towards energies as well. Turning on logic without need may interfere with the intuitive process. Trust the Universe and its protection. Feel the Divine presence every day, and you will go your unique way, full of enlightenment and inspiration!

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

A person is sitting on a mountain top in the lotus pose, admiring the view of gorges and canyons, rocks and cliffs; snow-covered mountaintops stretch in front reminding of severity and grandeur. Could a weak person have climbed up here? Or a fretful, insincere one? Mountains are picky and do not welcome everybody. They challenge us on our genuineness and will power. There used to be moments of despair and unbearable fatigue, when he wanted to give up. "Who needs that?" he would rage. But there was something greater than his weaknesses calling and beckoning him to the top. Now there you are, on the tippy top, and you care no more about your rubbed feet and bruised knees, you are happy to be there on the mountaintop. However, you are not alone – together with Heaven, with the Universe ready to show its gratitude, so it is giving thanks for your effort to come up and stay! You are the one indeed! Later, you will go back to people, but you will not be the person you used to be, but a stronger and more confident one, and everyone will sense and understand this. You will tell them things you felt up there. They, too, will want to climb a mountain, but everyone will choose a mountain path of their own! Light is spreading on Earth!

In the sky's blue flow, a light goes on. You have sensed this flame...

*Lost in the crowd, I will set out and seek
The one who made the world unique.
Before my eyes it will unfold,
His creation - a coin of pure gold.
The One, who healed souls asking for no reward,
Who brought the light of love on board.*

*I crossed the grandeur of the world,
Barefoot, with a biddle over my back
I see an old man, his eyes sky blue his hair is curled.
Who 'll kindly yield a track,
'God is in your heart, do search no more'.*

*Since then, wherever I might go
In search of happy days.
I hear the old man's voice sweet and low,
Remembering his prayers.
'Look right into your soul!'
And Now I know
I wish I had listened to his advice!*

*Once or twice...
Now that I look for happiness and freedom in my soul,
The fog will clear away, all troubles and adversity will go
Now that I look into my own soul, I know God is there,
I have found home, where there is no despair.*

Improvement areas of the 9th code (attitude/life approaches that need to be reworked and need your special attention) also known as unworked-out negative karma:

- seclusion, mistrust of the world and people, excessive caution, fearsomeness
- avoiding people for too long. Retiring from the rest of the world
- unwillingness to help and share knowledge
- lack of love for people, lack of love for yourself
- solitude, love rejection and giving up on earthly pleasures

- excessive asceticism
- neglecting your health, physical body, appearance and home
- false pride, criticising people, rising above them. A mistaken opinion that you are smarter than everybody else
- holding resentment over not being valued the way you should
- relying on logic only and tensing your mind too much. A fear of solitude
- casual relationships. Shut off and reserved personality
- fussiness
- surrounding yourself with a great number of people and contacts out of the fear of solitude. Celibacy

Karmic how to's:

- seek depth in everything you do and everything fascinating you
- open up your heart to people, share knowledge you have
- take the wall down between yourself and the rest of the world
- try to enjoy deep feelings when dealing with people. Heal your soul from fear of relationships, from pain and past resentments
- work through grudges and reticence
- try a ritual of spiritual cleansing – an effective practice of forgiveness and acceptance
- try to avoid staying alone for long
- do not fear solitude
- stop surrounding yourself with contacts, connections and people just for company, still steer clear of letting chance people around
- learn to gain strength in the state of self-sufficiency and communicating with nature
- discover the gift of healing peoples' souls and bodies (at least those of your own and your relatives) inside of you
- appreciate and learn to use your mind's power and your heart's warmth
- remember when inner light lights up in your soul, it will definitely attract those who need it, so be sure to share this light!
- adopt an active life position, do sports
- treat life as a set of opportunities rather than limitations

The 10th code of the Destiny Matrix 22 codes©. The energy of FLOW

Affirmation. My fortune protects me. I can feel my happy life-changing flows. I enter them easily. Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

The 10th code

The 10th code – the energy of Flow:

*I am enjoying the flow bringing me to my goals.
Things coming easy, relieved is my soul.
I am so lucky, luck means my faith in me.
I'm in tune with my life, people, things – I let them be!
I'm in tune with my life, people, things – now I can see!
I'm in tune with my life, people, things – holy sea!
I say thank you my Heaven for me being me!*

The 10th code people are considered minions of fortune. They are born under a lucky star and since birth are placed under protection from Above, by their guardian angels. Throughout life, they feel guarded by Fortune, which helps them find a way out of even the most difficult life situations. It feels like they stay in the flow of destiny. Once they have make a decision, everything starts spinning around in this motion: lucky doors open; the right people come their way at the right moment; they come across an information which will lead to a favourable outcome, etc. The Universe seems to speak to them, constantly offering signs of its assistance. For this reason, many things come easy to the 10th code people unless they make their life complicated and confuse the wheel of fortune, spinning it the other way or even go against the flow. When people do so, they waste a lot of energy. Life stops opening lucky doors. Consequently, the 10th code people should learn to feel their flow and consciously enter it. Only well-developed intuition and trained consciousness can help them know their life mission and notice lucky signs on their way. Life is always talking to us using those. To act and make decisions through a well-established contact with the soul and angels' direction is the mission of the 10th code.

People enjoying the “flow” energy do not normally strive to land leading positions in life. They work extremely well in a team as their energy helps all kinds of projects and enterprises move smoothly. These people are sociable, easy-going, eager to push projects forward. They are adventurous and easily influenced. They should learn to perceive life as effortless, take on a positive life outlook and cultivate their solid spiritual core. Then their flow will always move in a favourable direction, towards realizing its Divine purpose:

*Discovering our destiny in this almighty flow
Is magic just as reaching all your goals.
You're feeling lucky – you're in tune with it!
You're being lucky – you're moving it!*

Spiritual mission sent from above for the 10th code people:

*My wheel of fortune is my own faith.
I'm my own boss controlling my thoughts and ways.
My intuition is what drives me on,
Yet choice is mine if I push forward or I am gone.
So, open up your heart! You have the riches of the world!
Life's calling you on board!
You'll flow smoother should you call the skies.*

*You'll flap your wings, you'll reach all mountain highs.
All you need is faith in you
And only then you will follow through.*

What you most need is to learn to work with the energy of flow, learn to feel it, enter it and move with it. Life is wise and knows what you need at this moment of time according to your karmic tasks. You should trust the Universe more with your concerns and wishes, keep in contact with your celestial protectors and guardian angels on a daily basis through meditation techniques, prayers and dialogues with God.

Be able to rise above the fuss of life, stop clinging on to the material world, let it go. Any attachments throw us off the flow; making us stand still instead of floating in a relaxed manner, unconditionally trusting of the Universe, knowing that everything will be all right.

This does not mean, however, that you do not have to lift a finger. Actions should always be there. Discipline, persistence, well-planned steps are of uttermost importance. It is better to write down your plans on a piece of paper and do your best to implement them, calling for support of the Universe and your favourable life-changing flow. The Universe has all things you need, you just have to make a reach for them. These people should grow their faith in their potential and bring up their spiritual strength every day.

It is necessary to spend time taking good care of your physical body and live a healthy lifestyle because a flow is motion in a particular direction. And people themselves should set the direction of their life and destiny. To be creative and active, rather than passive.

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

Your river of life is a flow. It is either a powerful, vigorous, mountain river, or a quiet one, flowing through fields and forests. It might also be a waterfall, with its streams rapidly falling from the mountaintop down. Or you could be invisible to a human eye like a flow of energy? Or maybe a flow of love streaming from one heart to another? What other kind of flow could you possibly be? That of inspiration, joy, love and light? Where your life is warmed by this flow! It is indeed! Oh, yes, it is!

Improvement areas of the 10th code (attitude/life approaches that need to be reworked and need your special attention) also known as unworked-out negative karma:

- inactivity, lack of initiative, absence of goals in life, gullibility
- unwilling to develop spiritually if at all
- laziness to take care of your physical body, wasting time, attachment to authorities and strong personalities, being dependent on others
- lack of love for yourself and lack of self-confidence
- waiting for others to act, being afraid to take the first step
- finding it difficult to make decisions and choices
- sleeping intuition
- negatively influencing destinies of other people, getting people involved in wrong flows
- down-to-earth and pragmatic ways.

Karmic how to's:

- learn to trust God and the Universe

- build a connection between your own soul and Higher forces
- accept Higher forces' guidance and protection in your life
- develop your intuition and learn to make choices that are right for you and feel right for you
- follow your heart rather than your mind
- develop your personality, independence and faith in yourself and your success
- always stay positive, happy and belonging in your flow
- do not go against the flow of life, wait for the right moment, meditate on it, visualise it. Attract your luck into your life
- let any achievement, even the smallest one make you happy, a little stream can start a great river (flow) of luck
- lead an active lifestyle, stay away from inertia and idle
- adopt a positive mindset, and joy will strengthen the flow of luck and good fortune of the 10th code
- learn to see and read signs of angels and the Universe to recognize your flow and favourable choices in your destiny
- see life as opportunities, not limitations
- be aware of your destiny and yourself, do not allow other people to drag you into involutionary flows and let your destiny go down the hill (the lesson of mindfulness and spiritual awakening).

Recommended occupations/activities:

The 10th code people belong in all spheres, where there is motion and a team of likely-minded people. They are team players; executive, administrative and office jobs are best recommended. Jobs connected with travelling and meeting people; jobs in tourism. Trainmen, flight attendants, traffic controllers, telephone operators, postal and telecommunication workers. Team sports are good choice: basketball, football, volleyball, etc. Jobs in the sphere of chain restaurants and cafeterias: waiters, bartenders. They can work in music bands, art, choir and dance groups.

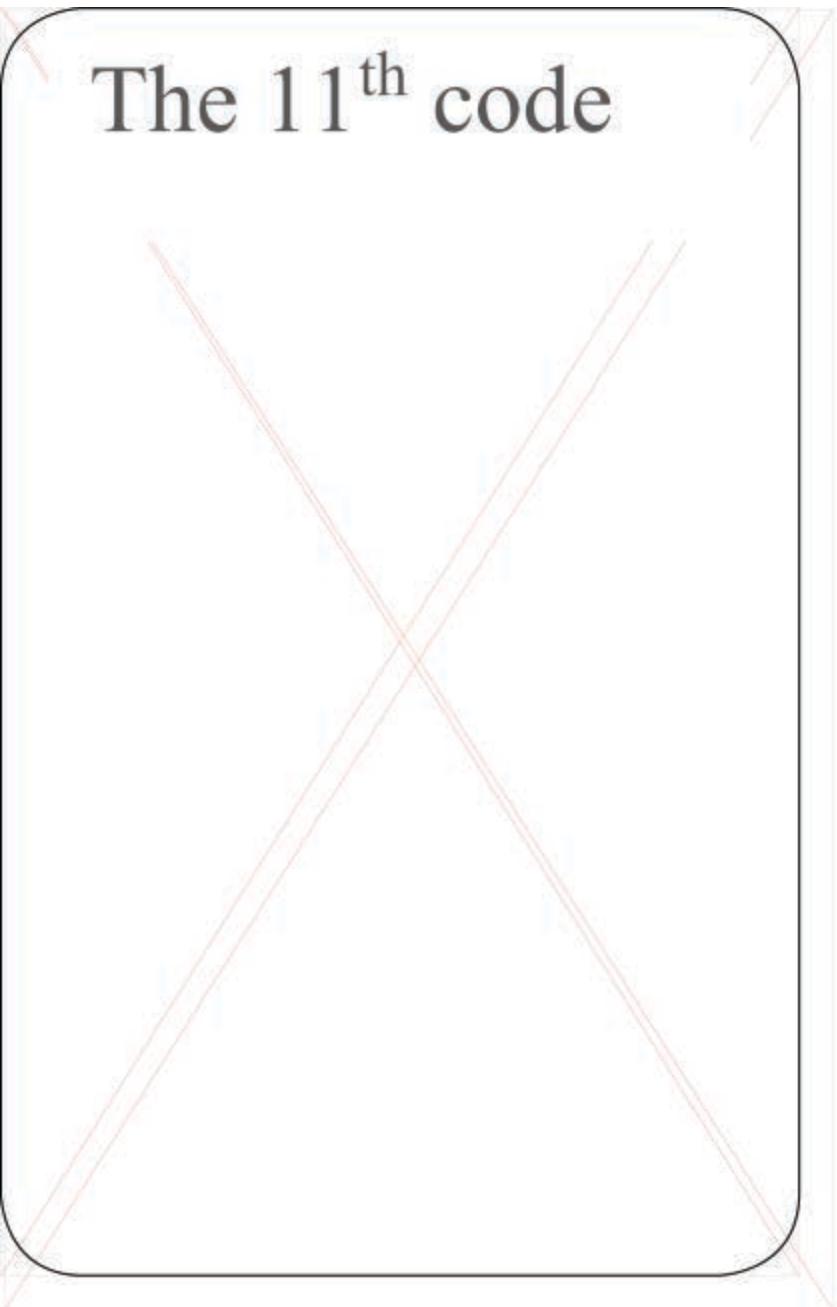

Celebrities born with the 10th energy in their destinies:

Bertold Brecht (February 10, 1898), Bubba Smith (February 28, 1945), Marcello Mastroianni (September 28, 1923), Wolf Messing (September 10, 1899), Elizabeth Hurley (June 10, 1965).

The 11th code of the Destiny Matrix 22 codes©. The energy of STRENGTH and POTENTIAL

*Affirmation: I am discovering my whole potential of spiritual strength.
My strength is comes from the Spirit, and so does that of my body and soul.
Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!*

The 11th code

The 11th code – the energy of strength and potential:

*I am feeling inspired by the strength of my spirit,
I am getting stronger with every minute.
This strength has been granted to me
To grasp the light and love's mystery.
For my weak self to gain power
This divine strength makes me flower
On the path of a great discovery
The strength gently recovers me.
Strength comes with a vast tons of fears
Those are the ones to steer clear.
When I've replaced the fear with trust,
When to love I've opened my heart – it's a must!
When my darkness has brought light,
When in the whole world,
I have discovered my Lord.*

Strength of the 11th code people is a major personality feature. They perceive world from this very point of view: the strength of the spirit, the power of words, the power of thought, the power of Divine Love, physical strength, etc. Their life always reveals peaks of colossal ups and then downs, because it is impossible to stay on top of the world most of the time just like remain at climax. The world moves in cycles, thus, unless the 11th code people learn to master their strength, there can be lessons, tasks, and rough edges for them to learn to manage their energy, emotions, and thoughts. Their strength can at times be directed outwardly and at other times – inwardly. Depending on what kind of strength it is, they can both create and destroy both worlds.

They are recommended to replace any negative aspects of strength they might have with the force of Divine love and accept the world as it is. Tame the passion inside themselves, tame the wild animal in the form of their own emotions, and they will be given enough power to bring good into many people's lives, they will be offered enough energy for this purpose. These people have a great energetic potential. They have vast work capacity and stamina.

The 11th code people are normally workaholics, wishing to be up to something all the time, unable to stay idle for too long. They are into active, power sports, fitness. Often they see their job as instructors of extreme recreation activities. In their free time, they prefer to stay active, but they should learn to enter a meditative and relaxed state, so that their strength could blend with softer creativity.

The 11th code people cannot bear pressure from the outside, starting to be defensive, hence setting off the "force against force" reflex. For this reason, they can display signs of arrogance, hot-temper and boldness. In general, though, they are quite cheerful, warm-hearted and noble, capable of taking responsibility and leading people as the 11th code also brings about the leadership energy. These people are resistant to defeats, at the same time striving for victory. They have a low pain barrier.

Spiritual mission sent from above for the 11th code people:

*You lose your strength when you act without a start;
You lose your strength when you lose your heart;
You lose your strength when you shut off your soul;
You lose your strength when you do not follow your goals.*

You were blessed with extraordinary strength, and getting many good things done is within it. Yet, you need to learn to use the power that has lived within you since you were born according to the life purpose encoded in the 11th code. Try to stay aware of the direction in which you are lead and transform its destructive outbursts before they get out of your control. To do so, you need to focus on Higher spiritual ideas and goals. In your life, set a spiritual mission to make the wellbeing of many people even better. You have the strength to lead them, hence, you should become a role model, an example that inspires many others. It is only through your positive experience that you will be heard and serve an example of changing your life and yourself for the better. Give up the habit of forcing “good” on others. This technique will not work, while it will simply scare people away.

Learn and practice forgiveness and acceptance techniques on regular basis. Be less demanding, stay kind and attentive to those who have less potential than you do. Give others time to “grow” to reach your level, do not rush the natural course of events. Everybody is free to move at their comfortable pace. Try not to pressurize people around and don’t strain yourself either. You do not need to create difficulties so you had to deal with them later, proving to yourself how strong you are. Inner power is born in a state of lightness of being, in the moment of “here now”. In the pursuit of a result, you can easily forget about yourself, forget to R&R. Develop a long-term habit of letting yourself do so, forgetting about work stuff and just relax. Move forward easily, effortlessly and enjoying wonderful lightness of being and the Divine strength of spirit will come to you:

*I am filled with the power of light,
This force has brightened up my day.
In this warmth, in the fire's sight
Forget your sadness and nasty delays.
This force will make all doubts fade,
This force will help you pave your way.
May harmony forever stay,
May victory brighten up each day.
I am filled with the power of God,
His love is all I have got
And warmth; the fire has come alive.
In its flames we'll all get to thrive.
I accept this love and warmth,
I accept their cleansing force,
I feel supported, I feel inspired,
To be creative, good and kind.*

*I will do my work with God.
 By my work's sparkle I am awed.
 From Heaven, it has come down to Earth,
 With its help, I will walk all my roads.
 This moment left all past behind.
 This moment brought clarity to my mind.
 With its force, I have fathomed life mystery.
 Wonderful secrets I have figured out my destiny.
 My soul has shown me the way,
 This dialogue with my soul has engaged:
 In the light of the sky my vision has cleared.
 New doors open, new ways clear, no more fears.*

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

Try to concentrate on unconditional love for all living beings on Earth, for all humans. Avoid blaming, judging people and dividing the world into good or bad. Try to see the positive side in everything, draw positive lessons out of negative life events. Plant good seeds, and you will reap a rich harvest of glory, mutual love, prosperity and creative power.

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

A wise man was walking down a road when he saw two young men fighting, measuring their strength and checking who was stronger. The wise man came closer and suggested they stop fighting. They did not quiet down, however, neither of the two would give in. Then the old man promised to teach them to gain strength – much greater and more powerful than physical, and the young men agreed to take a chance. The old man got them to sit down and meditate. They held hands and calmed down their minds and bodies, and so they went on sitting tracking no time – it flew into nowhere, and at one moment the power of Divine love came down on them, momentarily changing them and healing their aggression. When they were finished, they wanted to fight no longer. They were very surprised at how they felt. Thanking the old man, each went his separate way in silence, so as not to lose that wonderful new feeling, filling their hearts with warmth. They wished to climb mountain peaks and reach for the stars, hug all people and forgive and accept them all, and create wonderful things, and act courageously for everyone's good! In their minds, a phrase framed in beautiful music went on and on, "The power of Divine love! The strength of Divine love!" The most creative, healing and transforming force in the Universe.

I will give you stars, I will give you Heaven, I will open up my heart to you and we will know love that will change our lives!

The 12th code of the Destiny Matrix 22 codes©. The energy of SERVICE and NEW ANGLE VISION

Affirmation: I put an end to my self-sacrifice, transforming it into a new-angle vision. I am open to new things and my guardian angels are with me. I follow the path of serving, the path of an open heart filled with love for myself and for people around.

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

The 12th code

The 12th code - the energy of a NEW ANGLE of VISION:

*You view the world through your one-sided lens
While I can see it in various planes.
Numerous options are open to my being,
I have what you know as an alternative seeing.
You might often call me a wacko, a weirdo –
I can take it and keep doing what I do.
As much as you would like me to change,
I love the whole world, I love its whole range.
I offer love, I give love away. Rejoiced, my soul serenades.
I can hear life's calling: give love through the ages.
There is no other way of turning those pages.
Hanging or walking, I am still not the same –
The hangman that is? Do I like my own name?
Still happy I am! My soul is carrying light,
I proclaim peace on Earth and the extraordinary sight!*

The 12th code people have been blessed with the Divine sign of service. They have a particular task: to bring more good, compassion, and empathy into life. To teach people to be open, loving, serve a role model of selfless service by giving light, help, and support. The 12th code people have an alternative creative vision of many life matters. Looking at the 12th Tarot card, you will see a person hanging upside-down, which means he looks at the world and situations from the opposite angle to the point of view of people standing on their feet. Hence, the 12th code people's innovative view on everything living on Earth, their teaching to perceive and think about life differently. The 12th code people have lots of new ideas and projects, in any field. They are a Klondike of exceptional information. There are so many interesting things you can learn talking to a person of the 12th code! Their life seems to be painted in different colours and shades. Their channel of communication with angels is open and they believe in miracles and that life can be magic.

This type is always focused on helping and supporting one another, many people come to them to get their soul and body healed, sensing their compassionate heart. Their main mission is not to forget about themselves among other people's problems, taking care, showing love and attention: indulging themselves at times, treating themselves to presents and having those special days. We are given life to enjoy it, feel joy, happiness and prosperity, but not for suffering. It is crucial for these people not to fall into sacrifice trap towards any people or circumstances, to quit an addiction or the state of being suspended in time, be able to say no and speak up for themselves, because even their kind and soft heart sometimes drives them to act to their own detriment, but for other people's sake.

Love for themselves, self-discipline, and spiritual growth help the 12th code people pass all their life lessons and become wiser. They like learning a lot and mastering new things, original and special stuff. It is important for them to let go of old things with ease, not to get overly attached to people, situations, and circumstances, not to become "suspended" in outdated emotions or heading towards changes. Then their life will receive a more progressive meaning, motion will be there and these people will realize their life purpose according to the 12th code, finding unique and unconventional ways which will be of use to many people. Because an alternative vision is always a beginning of changes!

*How do I hit my spiritual road?
What is my very first step?
How do I know what is my code?
How do I get prepped?
How do I see the world? What is my way?
Beyond the narrow framework of dismay?
I will plant love in people's hearts,
I'll glue things that fell apart
Throwing sparks of dawn in the celestial canvas,
Saving the knowledge in the Divine manners.
Showing the path to the people.
Chiming the bells of the steeple.
Teaching the science of the soul,
Teaching folks how to reach their goals.
So, let light dissolve the night, and go for your dream.
Hit more new roads, stay faithful to yourself and always know your thing!*

You were blessed with an alternative vision and understanding of the essence of things, people and processes. You have a broad and compassionate heart, kind soul, you are there to comfort others with its warmth and offer help at any moment. You are able to give away your energy of love, care and attention and fondly. You communicate at ease, still it very important for you to learn to think of yourself in the right manner, with as much love. You have to remember that people are given life to enjoy, not to suffer. Learn to quit the suspension state and inertia. Some good tools to help you achieve this would be doing yoga, fitness, practice active recreation and travelling around the world. You are fond of learning and discovering new and unusual things. You are attracted to mysterious and enigmatic matters, you benefit from attending courses and workshops on spiritual growth and strengthening your inner power, developing your intuition etc. You can easily talk to people about unusual things, thus, spreading new knowledge and new vision around the Earth. You can make good missionaries, clergymen, spiritual preachers, educators, as well as healers of mind and body. You have deep empathy for other people's pain. You are susceptible and compassionate, always help-oriented.

Since you were born, Angels of Heaven have been there for you, you have good heavenly guardians. Heaven performs its Divine task through you, and if you open up to it, you will contribute to the planet's common weal. This path will open for you if your prayers and meditations are directed at the healing of Earth and its people. Unique ideas will be yours and doors will open, just say yes to Heaven and agree to serve.

Offer a little bit of happiness to other people, share your state of joy and inspiration, forgive all those who need to be forgiven and teach them to practice forgiveness. Accept the whole world as granted by God and help the Creator's spark to light up in everyone on Earth. Tell people about the new vision and new times and you will fulfil your life purpose because your mission on Earth is the mission of service!

Now it is your turn for some unconditional love and care. Because you, like everybody else, deserve all the best! And be sure to remember that there are more and more people on earth who are there and meditating for the planet to heal. Connect to their energy and you will find it easier to do what you are working on, you will attract many friends and like-minded people. The world will open up for you in the most unusual and wonderful way!

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

Now try to visualise a picture where you take a lotus flower and bring it close to your heart. Right there, inside, a spark of unconditional Divine love lights up. You feel you have warmed up, so you want to share this experience, so you are giving the flower to the next person ready to accept it. She, too, brings it near her heart, and her heart lights up with happiness, so she wants to pass on this light for many more people to enjoy it. And soon the world gets filled up with lots of more people with their open hearts and clear minds, ready to share their happiness with others. There are more smiles and laughing faces on our planet. And so, you go out, and a man is approaching you smiling. It feels like he has known you forever, and this is indeed so, for the energy of love you sent before, has come back to you in this happy smile of a stranger. Everything in this world is bound to return!

The 13th code – the energy of Transition:

Death dismantles an eternal light.

Death ain't scary, it's a road home and freedom's sight.

Beyond its threshold we will know

How we lived our lives, and so

In this light, we will comprehend

Who it actually was in the end:

A martyr in our sored flesh?

Or a saint that is born afresh?

We'll talk to it, 'Wake up!'

We will drink from that cup...

Beyond the threshold is the Eternal star,

The soul glides over our world by far.

In peace and bliss it soars

Towards Higher forces

After it's done its earthy chores.

And it finds out what the source is.

To the heavenly beings it responds,

Planning new healthy bonds.

How long shall it stay the soul decides,

Before again on the Earth it arrives.

The 13th code people are mystical and unpredictable just like the energy type of their life purpose. At times, they are enigmatic even to themselves. People around perceive them quite ambiguously due to their tendency to transform and change. Not everyone is prepared to deal with this power. The 13th code people are capable of stirring, initiating changes and renewals. Wherever they appear, they contribute to restoration of old norms and forms into new and more progressive ones. Everything outdated has to leave the Universe and transform in the evolutionary flow of life. If people are not ready for changes (and those are inevitable and come suddenly), this does not always go trouble-free for them. Thus, the 13th code people can launch irreversible processes of vital transformations and imminent changes. They cannot linger in the same situation for too long, doing boring and monotonous work. They crave for experiencing strong outbursts of feelings and emotions, and take a genuine interest in life. Curious, creative, they easily overcome difficult situations. In extreme conditions, they promptly pull themselves together, get into groups and concentrate, acting without delay or panic.

Philosophy of life and death is their philosophy and natural state. Like no one else, they understand the cyclic nature of rhythms on Earth. And if they get rid of old things, they will never come back to it, rather they begin new life cycles. The 13th code people are decisive, brave and fearless. They are daring, proactive, capable of committing heroic actions and displaying intense feelings. They tend to live in cycles: some states of theirs will eventually be replaced with reverse ones – just life changes, like seasons come and go, like life and death and so on. They have to spiritually accept all cycles of their life and tune into a positive, cheerful and happy wavelength. They are inborn life guards and daredevils, their fear of death is numb. Understanding the philosophy of it, they are not afraid of anything related.

Fearlessness is their personality. Helping people change, learning spiritual lessons from difficulties, letting go of the old, destroying stagnation and demonstrating the way of changes to people is their mission on Earth is, indeed, their mission.

Spiritual mission sent from above for the 13th code people:

*There ain't no losses, there's no pain...
There is no loss without gain.
We cannot change what cannot change –
A book is turned by every page.
A soul has the life-transforming fire
That breathes it into new beginning,
A soul knows the art of staying alive,
Aware of the infinity of being.
Life on Earth is full of creation,
Where everyone get off on their destination.
A soul is magnificently free in Heaven.
And nothing is to stop that levin.
Nothing to stop the Universal motion.
A soul is born to live in life's eternal ocean.
A soul is born with a life to live –
A kind life open to its sweet Creator.
Its mission is to take and give
And come back to its generator.
We will meet again, there is no loss,
Our destinies and paths will cross,
We'll get to know the eternal life of every soul,
In glowing light do seek your noble goals.
Yet set it free if what it wants
Is hover like a bird of skies!
Treat death as crossing to the other side
Let the soul enjoy its flaunts.
It has gone to be back again
It has gone to get reborn.
This soul will not go astray
Together we ain't not forlorn.
There aren't losses, there's no pain...
There's zero suffering on eternal skies...
It's just for now that there is goodbye –
And we will meet, we'll definitely meet again!*

Everything destined to die will; everything destined to change will do so. This is the very idea the 13th code people are called to assist with. They were granted the power of rebirth and the power over cycles of change. They are capable of bringing these changes where it might seem nothing can be changed. Their boiling energy is similar to a cleansing mountain waterfall, falling down swiftly and powerfully, breaking down into numerous splashes and sparks of light. Their life is bright and original, the cyclic nature of change is evident in it. And it is important for them to feel both comfortable and blissful during all life stages. They will find help in the continuous connection with Heaven, practicing meditation and physical exercise. They will benefit from engaging in energy practices and energy gymnastics so that they could get themselves together in times of energy slumps, drawing energy from the source of the Universe's eternal energy.

The 13th code people are recommended to take great care of themselves, live a healthy lifestyle, and have a well-toned body – that is staying in harmony with their types of energy, because at times, these people are required to demonstrate their skills, self-discipline, strength and stamina. These people are pretty low-key when it comes to comfort, they can accept equally well both luxurious and outdoor camping extreme conditions. They will even find the latter more fun. They have great adaptation skills. It is important for them to work through their inner blocking factors, and they will be able to move forward, demonstrating their ability to create new things, be open to the new things, reborn and change. Philosophic view of life helps them perceive the fact of death on Earth in a soft and mellow manner.

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

You died in one quality and got reborn in another. And deaths like this occur multiple times in your lifetime. Thus, life itself is born by the fact of death, and it goes on so for ever and ever...

*Life and death are one,
Where we are born – we have long been gone.
So, a soul is born to live.
Then it leaves the Earth to be free.
Filled with liberty and free will,
It comes back on Earth relieved.
This has always been so and it always will.
Life and death they last till the word ‘until’.*

I love coming to the ocean at sunset, when I can see stars light up in the sky and their light reflects in the water; and when the wave rolls in, the ocean breathes its ebbs and flows, reminding me of the cyclic nature of life in the whole Universe and life on Earth. Life and death, life and death are one.

Affirmation: I have a well-established connection with my soul. My soul and mind are in tune. Angels stand by me.

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

The 14th code – the energy of Healing, Soul and Art:

*How blissful would it be to get in tune with my soul!
What blessing would it be to relish simple things!
What splendor is to find my ultimate goal
And fly up high to reach the Earth's top brims!
How great the world would then look
Had I found the light in the end of the tunnel
Sharing its pleasure at its every nook
Hearing clearly from a precious funnel.*

The 14th code people are ones who sense and perceive the world, other people and events in an exquisite fashion. They have a rich emotional inner world, mature soul. They are receptive to beautiful things, they need to feed on the energy of art, which is why they like spending time in museums, theatres, concerts, attend creative nights. They are into dancing, painting, music, theatre and cinema. The sphere of the 14th code people's interests is very vast and varied. Intellectuals, they maintain a conversation at ease, usually well-read and know a lot. They also take interest in poetry and history. They can choose a profession connected with the sphere of arts as well. Foreign languages come easily to them and they usually have contacts abroad and travel to different countries. The 14th code people, apart from their skills in the sphere of art, have well-developed healing abilities, most often, using natural remedies. They are good at healing with herbs, cleansing methods and love to apply this knowledge to their own needs as well. They are great food connoisseurs, trying to maintain healthy lifestyle. As in Tarot cards, the 14th is the card of temperance, the 14th code people learn to tame all their inner passions through cleansing, fasting, and praying practices. They tend to move away from temptations of the body, thus, strengthening their spirit. Communicating with others, above everything else, they prefer to see people's souls, their core values, and only after that come their looks. The interior is more important to them than the exterior, although the beauty of forms and aesthetics of taste are matter to these people too. They are connoisseurs of beautiful things. Their curative element is water. These people will benefit from frequent water activities, including spa water therapies are effective for them. Since birth, they have a well-established connection with their Guardian Angel, which is why they have strong intuition and extrasensory perception. They make good healers. The 14th code people have a well-balanced and benevolent nature; they are open-hearted when in a good spirits. They can take up leadership roles, though they do not particularly aim to. To be in a creative life process, rather than in charge is of bigger importance. These are people who love nature and animals. A person whose 14th code is clear of negative influences is said to have a soul of an angel:

*My soul, do talk to me.
You're me, I'm you – we are one.
I wish to live in harmony!
In peace with you I'll come undone.
Be my guiding star, show me the way
And make my every single day.
Do talk to me at night,*

*Do speak when I work or dream...
Just guide me till I find the light
Together we make a great team!*

Spiritual mission sent from above for the 14th code people:

*My soul, come to me let's talk.
You're centuries old, how fast beats your clock?
I want to know where you came from
And what your mission on the stardom...
Show me the way where to go;
Together we might be high and low.
Let me hear your voice,
Let me know my choice.
Your echo inside my heart
Is that the way to start?*

It is important for you to discover your creative potential, join the realm of the beautiful things, do your best to show other people the beauty of life through art. You were blessed with the energy of initiating creative processes on Earth and the power to heal a human soul, help it awaken and mature through art. You are destined to show people an alternative view on the world and people. To teach them see beautiful and great things in the simplest stuff, turn common and mundane ideas into a creative process. You have an inborn power to heal human bodies and souls. You have energetic hands and you can cure people using them. Do not be afraid to start your creativity at any age. A human soul recognizes none. So, creation comes mainly from the soul. Do your best to be moderate at times, cleanse your body of chemicals and toxins, drink energetic water from holy and curative springs. You might want to spend more time in nature, rest near water, talk to water, touching it. Water Angel is there for you. Engage in meditation techniques, do energetic gymnastics; yoga suits you well, do some stretching, try to keep your body flexible. Develop your spirit: read books on spirituality, attend workshops on self-actualization and live as a creative person. May luck be with you on this path!

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

An angel flapped her wings, covering you in her soft embrace. You did not see that happen, but you could feel a light breeze flying by, fanning you with its coolness. At that moment, music was being born in your head. Or, perhaps, you had an urge to pick up a brush and paint something abstract, barely perceptible, but carrying so much energy and meaning for your soul and souls of others. So, do grab a brush right now and dance your own dance! Angels will rejoice in Heaven along!

*Wake up my sweet soul!
I want to hear your gentle voice.
Together we are whole
I want to know my designated choice.
Open to me all secrets of the living*

*Where I shall start my own way.
Teach me the art of giving
And fill with love my every single day.*

THE SEVEN CODES OF THE SPIRIT LAND

The 15th code introduces the last seven energies of the Spiritual Land. The Spiritual seven energies embody our connection with the Higher spirit, our principles, our faith. What we really believe in is reflected in these seven codes via which we get to know directly the Creator's plan for us and the entire humanity. These are the codes that are given to us for our evolutionary growth and is Heaven's (Higher forces') direction, signs and support. They inform us about our karmic lessons directly. This is the world of energy in us, which we call the integrity of our aura as well as our spiritual life. It is the 15th code that serves the gate into the seven codes of the spirit and brings our imperfection on the surface.

The 15th code of the Destiny Matrix 22 codes©. The energy of DEVELOPMENT

Affirmation: I am getting rid of any addictions and transforming negative things in me into the Divine Light. I am reaching a helping hand to other people. I am transforming aggression into an energy of gratitude. Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

The 15th code – the energy of the DEVELOPMENT:

*Switch from aggression to light,
Awaken your purity, bring it alive.
Under Heaven's holy guidance
Raise your dream in its material highness.
Let the dream turn things into motion,
Let the fire of the Spirit burn all commotion.
And the dark force's eclipse will pass,
Evil temptation exposed through a magnifying glass.
You may find on your way dirt, temptation,
Soul blazing up in aggression,
You may sense the worm of doubt,
And the ominous sky may cloud.
And the path is thorny at times,
There is loss and grief that grimes.
Still your faith in Heaven will help
Pass life's most dangerous dents.
Just watch out: you will to pass the life's test,
Or in the life you will find no rest.
Let your prayers inspire you,
Then Holy Spirit will be inside you.
Darkness and anger will abate,
Slowing down your angry heart rate.
Strength and harmony will come,
Just be thankful to the skies,
Glory this precious rule of the thumb,
Give thanks to yourself, say yikes!
I made it!*

People of the 15th code were blessed to be born with a great potential of energy and abilities. They kind of x-ray human weaknesses being able to see through whichever imperfections there may be and whenever there is something that needs to be worked through and healed. Not even knowing, they may provoke a person to reveal their negative quality so that it can be seen vividly. The 15th code people perform an evaluating mission whether somebody is ready to enter the land of the seven Spiritual energies, because the 15th code is the starting point of these (the physical world includes those of the 1st code through the 7th; the world of soul – from the 8th through the 14th and our focal point is that of the 15th through the 21st – the seven energies of the spirit land with the 22nd code being transitional one that is a bridge from the physical to the Spirit). For this reason, the 15th code people have a special mission: not to let the weak and unprepared cross that bridge, for they would not be able to stay that far and high, and to fall would be painful and unsafe. That said, we should always understand what negative qualities might prevent us from keeping afloat. Thus, the mission of the 15th code is to provoke – test people. The 15th code people are great tempters, ones whose help is used to point at human weaknesses. Make friends with a 15th coder and you will find out what your buttons are. That is why, not everyone is strong enough to bear this type for too long, people's attitude towards them varies: some people love and respect them, others hate or fear them preferring to stay away, some intuitively keep distance initially, concerned that something might start happening they are not ready to face. All in all, the 15th code people are cheerful, energetic, sociable, adventurous, capable of handling situations and other people well-enough, and turning events their way. They like earthly pleasures and know how to attract good things in their lives. Everything luxurious, posh and glamorous is their kind of thing.

The 15th code people appreciate the value of material riches and those of the soul, experts on many life questions, they can advise well, and see the essence of problems and situations. They have inborn clairvoyance. Their intuition is well developed and their inner world is rich. A desire to possess things is part of the 15th code nature. They have got to have the best and most luxury things of all, to glow and shine in society. As a rule, they are well-groomed and dressed with style. They can be confident and charming public speakers. Talents in numerous spheres. Their business is a success; they are very good at striking deals and working in finance. They can attract "easy money." Lucky in games, they must remember to stop before it is too late and to be winners.

People with the 15th energy are players, life is a game for them. They can have everything and lose everything. They get used to any kinds of conditions, and wherever they can find a way out. They do not prefer giving away things they consider theirs. Gentle, passionate, loving, they are reliable and adventurous at the same time.

Spiritual mission sent from above for the 15th code people:

*A golden cage for your soul,
Full of luxury where nothing will grow.
Seeing gold, you may go into raptures
Still do not hurry to get captured.
The cage offers everything but liberty,
Plenty of power but little love in captivity.
Abundance of money, whims catered for
They are added on your bill— be careful though.
There is nothing you can get without paying,
There is nothing there you can't buy.
Mind, they recognize no delaying,
Yet the lesson learnt can make you cry.
Tricked, you will want your freedom back!
Wanting to hear your soul speak,
You will hear it say, or moan or shriek,
All the riches you may have on track—
Search for them no more. They're all in you.
There will be nothing more true
Than the greatest value of your own soul.
What's more precious than your true goal?!
Money you want so much ain't eternal,
Cherish your utmost goals, your deepest kernel.*

God has given you immense abilities, so try to use them for everyone's good. The point is to always remember that everything you send into the Universe comes back to you multiplied. Try to stay open-hearted and loving, respect people and do your best to help, rather than causing pain. Even if you can see falsity and negativity, do your best to explain things, give people a helping hand and guide them towards light. Support the weak. Show them the way. Serve an example of positivity, cheerfulness and light. Teach people to appreciate joy and earthly pleasures, but do not get attached to material things as the power of the Spirit is gained when we let go of all addictions. Do not keep hold of things by force, also do be able to let go and give space to people, remembering about the freedom of choice. Accept people and situations as they are. Learn to forgive, neutralize outbursts of aggression. Loosen your excessive control over your nears and dears. Make sure to use all your potential for everyone's good. Grow spiritually, adopt a positive attitude towards life. Brightside will help you overcome any difficult situations. Do your best to share. Show generosity. Open your soul to love. And much more will come to you than you could possibly imagine! Life in the name of good! Love Earth and glorify the Universe! Tune into any creative work for the good of Earth.

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

A guy met a Dark Angel on her life path, who started tempting him, offering power, money, easy, partying lifestyle, honours and fame. The Dark Angel threw all earthly pleasures at the man's feet. The guy asked the Dark Angel, "But if I accept this all, won't I have to give something in return? I am aware how things work: you give for stuff you take. Everyone knows that as the law of conservation of energy." "Of course, the Dark Angel replied, - so you are a hard nut eh? You know how things work, don't you? What I want in return is sure your soul! You seem to have a fair one I guess." "If you think so, the man said, will I be strong enough to turn down everything you are offering me?" The Dark Angel fell silent, having looked into his eyes. The man did not avert them, and the Angel had to go away while the man went on his way. Each of them realizing that it is impossible to measure the light of the soul by any material goods. Thus, the freedom from attachment to material possessions offers us the light of the soul and the world of emotions which the Dark Angel has no power over!

*You have placed yourself on a postament,
You are looking down on the crowd.
You'll have to realize the true testament
In equality your real strength lies.
In equality you discover the essence
Of life integrity on the Earth.
Forget your selfishness and welcome luminescence.
See? You're starting your own rebirth!*

The 16th code

The 16th code – the energy of Spiritual Awakening:

*I can see a path filled with light
I feel like taking it, a pleasant sight!
I will talk to God and ask for advice
I know I will have to pay a brand new price.
I will ask for a word of wisdom,
I will get rid of this stifling prison.
With the Divine protection and beauty,
I can be the one on my duty.
With the Divine protection and beauty,
I can be the one on my duty.
I will share the word of wisdom,
To the depth of love I will listen,
I will get dissolved in bliss and craving
That God is pouring from Heaven.
On the way to this endless light,
Our soul is our true guide.*

After experiencing earthly temptations and emotional states, people probably understand a lot and seen the light, and this is the essence of the 16th code which lies in beginning to see things clearly, change their old view on life, on everything that used to seem unchangeable. This is what we call an insight or a spark of light in the mind. This is the ability to live and enjoy the moment here and now. Everything undergoes transformations in the 16th code. A new vision and understanding gives us an ability to start living a brand new life filled with mindfulness and spirituality. Yet this does not mean that circumstances suddenly change, rather our view and attitude towards them do, acceptance is here. The 16th code brings about transformation and destruction of everything slowing us down and leading us astray from our life purpose. People with the 16th code contribute a lot to general awakening. Destroying the old vision and retrograde mindsets, bringing change into habitual forms and stagnant lifestyle, showing the destructive force of earthly attachments, attachments and emotional addictions is their God-given gift, they walk their road of ascending to the spirit during their life, receiving challenging lessons for their own transformations and awakening. They tend to start new cycles quite often for life does not stand still, things are always happening, and if people come to understand events correctly, according to all karmic laws of being, they come out victors even from the toughest situations, gaining even greater strength of spirit, endurance and stamina.

These people are strong energetically and spiritually, because otherwise it would be impossible for them to deal with the powerful energy of the 16th code. They are given it by destiny as a gift. At times, they might seem explosive, harsh and impulsive, but their kind heart, wishing to help show and explain the way towards the light to people make them glowing lights in any darkness. Right there, the 16th coders are able to lead others towards the end of the tunnel, new vision and awakening. Their leadership energy is capable of charging others. They can also see the way to changes in everyday tasks. They like to participate in reconstruction and rebuilding, you can expect them to come up with unusual creative decisions and apply innovative approaches in any activities.

*The world offers us two paths:
A victim or love,
Pain or harness,
Anger or light –
The choice is ours,
We have to choose in any hours.
What future do we have for all
Depends on every human soul.
We're free to choose. It's snooze or lose –
The choice is free
The law is universally as true as it can be.*

*Some of us do and reach success,
Others stagnate in old mess.
The paradox is –
And everyone agrees
To bear their cross.
So why don't you straighten your shoulders
And choose to be your own boss?*

Awakening is a godly mission on Earth and a responsible task indeed. Life has placed high standards for you and you should aim to climb the steps of ascension in spirit. Your personal awakening will serve an example for many others. You are able to shed light on any, even the darkest and seemingly hopeless, situations. Engage in spiritual work. Become group leaders of spiritual awakening practices, try to tune into the flow of spiritual people working together to awaken others on Earth into higher vibrations of new quality and new energy. Meditate for healing of the Earth as well. Bring higher aims and tasks into your everyday life. Do not underestimate your abilities. Your destiny has been given to you from the upper level of the Spirit and faith, from the level of connection with the Universe and all changes taking place at the moment. No wonder you were born with the energy of transformation, the energy that will help you reach the level of awakened and broadened mind, and through you it will help others too, all you need to do is agree to work spiritually, say yes to Heaven and the Universe, and ways, as well as ideas will come.

Entrust this care to Higher forces and everything will appear in your life in the best possible way. You do not have to wrestle with the question about how to be useful to many people, how to awaken people to light – ways and paths will open themselves, just be perceptive to sounds and signals of destiny. Act without delay when you feel that the time has come. Meditate on a daily basis, keep a spiritual diary, take down interesting information that comes to your mind. Remember that Higher forces are always with you as per your life mission of the 16th code!

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

Any human being is born twice – the first time physically, and the second time –in the Spirit as a spiritual creature. So, this kind of birth is considered awakening when people start to perceive the world in two dimensions: physical and metaphysical or spiritual. They expand their vision and mind, beginning to believe in the Divine presence and guidance, thus, letting the subtle world into their material life. Then what happens is what we know as merging the two beginnings, where something important is switched on, the point of assembly of Heaven and Earth appears: a flash of light or lightning, sparks of fire flame or stars falling from the sky, or a rainbow and northern lights, or flashes of mindfulness in consciousness. I am their presence. I am all that I am. I am everywhere and nowhere. I show up in physical forms and yet I am nothing, I am a point in emptiness, from which love springs. I am reality and unreality at the same time. I am hardly perceptible and yet clear, distinct and speaking. I am God in you!

*Clouds in the summer are a beauty!
In an open field, feel the freedom and purity,
The mirror-like surface of the sky,
The song of the wind passing by.
In the field, a church stands on a hill,
In the sun its golden dome shining.
You are drawn there by the freedom thrill,
The dome is pure gold, with stars lining.
You are running with no direction;
You are heading sky high.
This is your pure dream projection,
And off you go marvelled there by.
You cross the holy threshold,
You kneel down bowing to God.
You have believed with all your soul
Being taken on board*

You have found the path to follow!

The 17th code of the Destiny Matrix 22 codes©. The energy of the STAR

Affirmation: I am a conduit of heavenly flow. I can easily find my creative career. My guiding star is shining for me.

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

The 17th code

The 17th code – the energy of the Star and Creativity:

*Say “Yes” to life, say, “I am a star,”
Start now and rev up your destiny’s car.
Let light shine brightly your path,
Get rid of old wrath.
Fortune will come, just set off and fly,
Live with a dream and reach your aims high,
Keep trying be daring,
Inspiring and sharing,
Determined and focused
Set up a new locus
On the path lined up with stars,
In harmony with your own heart.*

The 17th code people are starry and clearly outstanding. They are blessed by the sky at birth. Heaven and Higher forces supervise, protect, take care of them sharing the creative self-actualization energy. It can be any kind of creativity or simply standing out, even in daily routine and chores. One cannot but notice these people for they really do. It is fun to talk with them, people are attracted to them, sensing their positive influence. Heaven makes these people its energy conduits. They have close connection with nature. They are open and compassionate.

Hands of the 17th code people can heal, and everything they do (if they do it with love) comes out well. People who are conduits of the star energy are said to be starry or connected with their star. So, should they delve deeply into any activity, they can fly sky high and be noticed by many people. For a star shines in the sky, and thousands can be looking at it.

The 17th code people are susceptible, intuitive, with extrasensory capabilities. They often have vivid, prophetic dreams and vast imagination. Sometimes they say: come down on earth with your head up in the clouds.

The energy of the star enchants. It is crucial for them to find their way, realize their talent, understand their life and creative path, and then Heaven’s energy will be able to manifest itself through them in vigorous flow. Faith and love in themselves, staying connected with Heaven are vital components of these people’s success. “The star” people can carry the state of a joyful and excited child through their entire life. They are talented in all kinds of arts they study in depth. They adore animals, nature, flowers.

Spiritual mission sent from above for the Star people:

*All things coming to your mind
Are all real. Trust your Destiny don’t be blind.
Don’t think hastily.
Send your doubts away;
Do not fear. Do not sway.
You can do it, be brave!
Act with cheer, love with passion and crave.
Do not blame or scold your past.
You’ll be rewarded on your way at last.*

*Just stay alert so you can find
What attracts you, what's on your mind,
Job that brings joy.
Do what your soul is singing, Ahoy!*

You have had a connection with Heaven and the Universe since you were born. Your life is guided by your own unique star and you have extraordinary abilities and talents. You are gifted in everything you become fond of, what you invest your soul and love in. Your heart is open, kind and compassionate, you are capable of healing people using energy. Staying connected with Heaven is your daily must. Practicing prayers, meditations, exercises for energy will help you keep your natural energy levels as well as star channels well-conducting. You need to take care of your physical body, eat a healthy diet and not get intoxicated, because that will block channels in your organism. Keep fit, enjoy outdoor time, relax, travel around the world, move in any direction of your intellectual, spiritual and physical development. Work through your fears and insecurity, otherwise they will stop you from implementing your Star.

Figure out where and in what sphere this can be. What do you like most of all, what brings you joy and lightness? Stay emotionally positive, replace negative thoughts with positive and progressive ideas. Tone your body, learn to deal with failures. You need to understand their philosophic meaning, learn to derive lessons. A star-filled path opens to those who learn to face a negative outcome in a proper way, keeping faith in their unique gift given by God. Stars in the sky are seen by those who have a well-established connection with Heaven, believes in their star and implements their unique gift, day after day polishing it. To reach heights, you need determination, faith in yourself and strength of spirit and to work hard. I am wishing you star victories on your life path. If a Star lights up in the sky – thousands of people will see it! It is crucial to know and learn to concentrate on your ultimate goals.

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

*I asked God what a star was.
And the answer came,
It is a way to applause!
"How do I find it in my fussy life?"
"Stuff that makes you happy is your daily 5. "
"How do I learn my true self? How do I find my way?"
"Hear your inner voice, learn to love, cherish each day.
Your heart knows where the star glows.
If you listen to your heart, the destiny doors will show you the start.
Day after day do study hard.*

*For on this path we grow all the time.
On this path, there are steps going up high.
This is a happy way and motion for all of us!*

*For you have the strength of spirit
To be there every minute.
So, open up and move on Right there you will see light to where you are drawn."*

If someone enjoys their work immensely, pursuing their goals persistently, God lights up a star for him in the sky, so that at night, when it is dark and tough to move on, people can still see and keep on walking. The star serves as guide. And you are getting an invisible energy cord between you and your star, now being able to really find it easier to overcome these difficulties during hard times, so thank your star for sending you energy and light. And the star, out of love for and gratitude to people, is shining even more brightly, sharing of those. And so it kept shining until it has become so bright that many people have noticed it. They said, "Man, gee— another star has lit up in the sky – it's a good sign! Somebody must have lit it up in the sky with their hard work and kind intentions!"

Improvement areas of the 17th code (attitude/life approaches that need to be reworked and need your special attention) also known as unworked-out negative karma:

- dependence, relying on others too much, fretfulness, inability
- apathy. Inadequate perception of reality
- head in the clouds
- taking futile steps, wasting your energy and efforts.
- weak-willed

The 18th code

The 18th code – the energy of the Moon:

*The Moon is the queen of the night,
The Moon is the queen of dreams.
The mystical Moon governs love right.
Reflecting in water its beams.
For billions of years of history
We've been trapped in the Moon's mystery.
The Moon governs the dark,
It is good friends with stars; its sparks
Light up our path,
We are grateful for its assistance and luminous bath.
It would have been so dark otherwise.
Everything would stand still in disguise.
Fallen asleep. Soft is moonlight.
Soon it will go and dawn will come,
Old stuff will go crumb.
All trees and flowers will flake,
And so will people, sees and lakes...
Here comes the dawn!
The night has gone.
Feel full of vigour and well - rested.
It will return as the day goes nesting,
In this the mystery life's plan lies:
Ebbing and flowing of our ocean long i's.*

People born with the 18th code are mystical and attractive by nature. They are born with rich inner world, their depth enchant, making them enigmatic with vivid imagination and well-developed intuition. They have frequent prophetic dreams and an energy connection with the Moon. Therefore, their life and health are directly influenced by lunar cycles. If the Moon waxes, their potential is growing; on the other hand, as it wanes, they feel low-key. Still, the 18th code people are strong. At full moon, they reach their highest potential peak.

The Moon is a huge magnet in the Universe, thus, Moon people can attract everything they concentrate on, or think about for some time, into their life. They have the strongest materializing ability, being able to create their reality with their thoughts, and it is good when this is reality is kind. What if is it is not? Therefore, learning to stay positive is their prerogative. Positive thinking is a way to success throughout their whole life.

The 18th code attracts its people to mysterious, enigmatic, unusual and mystical stuff. There are mostly mystics, magicians and prophets among them. They often build their career based on these skills. The Moon controls magi and rituality, ceremonies. In everyday life, the Moon gives people artistic skills, bright imagination, good memory, and an ability to forecast situations and people. The Moon provides a connection with Heavenly patrons, so the 18th code people believe in Higher forces and miracles.

They can implement their talents in any sphere of life, staying extremely versatile, but still tending to choose something intriguing. They are also attracted to art. Their inborn writing skills are amazing. They create beauty around themselves.

The Moon is yin energy, governed by the water, it attracts all around. It does. For this reason, moon people benefit from frequent using water, spending time near water reservoirs, practicing healing and cleansing of their physical bodies with water. They should watch their water levels and drink purified water during the day. The 18th code people should avoid staying depressed for too long. They want to develop spiritually so that the dark negative Moon could not affect them negatively.

Spiritual mission sent from above for the Moon people:

*Call divine light into your life,
To live in love you should strive.
Work Heavenly magic on Earth,
Talk to the Moon with kindness and mirth.
The Moon will help find your way in the dark.
Walk into the sunrise and open your heart.*

You are blessed with a powerful magic force and should learn to use it for everyone's good. To work magic just for your own purposes means to narrow your abilities down or block them totally. You should understand that you were born under the lunar sign, thus, the Universe has a plan of Divine love and actualization for you. With your help, this Divine Love can spread for the higher good of all living beings. Think thoroughly about your life goals. Write them down on a piece of paper. Then draw a map of your dreams based on these. (Look for detailed map in my next book. Meanwhile you can search for some information online). Make sure to visualise these goals. Thank the Universe for support.

Remember that everything that comes from you returns to you multiplied according to the law of energy conservation. Study them. Develop spiritually. Watch out for negative thoughts not to control your mind. Learn to concentrate on positive sides of the world and life.

Communicate with the Universe. Call Higher Forces into your plans and actions, express your gratitude for their support. Learn to interact with Heaven through signs along the way. Master the practice of intuitive vision, or you might benefit from lucid dreaming. Write down your dreams right after and soon you will learn to read the language of your dreams. Be able to let it go and learn not to get attached to the material things. Believe in the infinite prosperity of the Universe for every human being. Wish everyone good anytime and anyplace (which is also known as planting good seeds)— all this will be returning to you later.

Treat yourself with love. Take good care of your physical body, keep it trained and fit, make it strong and beautiful, like the mystical Moon. At full Moon, perform rituals for abundance, unconditional love and healing, wish the same to all people on Earth too; then you will find your unique self-actualization according to the 18th code!

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

What a mystical and enchanting sight the Moon lit up in the sky! You can watch it forever not taking your eyes off it; its soft glowing is mesmerizing, both enigmatic and attractive. It excites our imagination. Cloaked in moonlight, everything acquires hazy outlines, everything becomes both real and unreal at the same time. Just like life. Everything that seems to us real and constant today can be unreal and elusive tomorrow. Life unveils to us step by step, picture by picture, situation by situation, and we go on, mastering this life, and in this lies the beauty of the learning process. Life becomes an illusory picture of Moon shadows! It loses its kind magic, instead acquiring illusion and static nature! People get lost in mazes of their thoughts and dreams. Yet, then dawn follows the night. As soon as you imagine the Sun rising in the sky or greet the Sun at sunrise that all colors of life are becoming brighter starting a new life cycle. It has always been so!.. The Sun and the Moon! Day and Night! Always going hand in hand.

When we realize that everything runs in cycles, we start seeing life as it is, setting ourselves up for the happy phase, which is bound to come according to the Universal law!

The Moon is productive and creative imagination: a visualizing, pensive, concentrating energy. By contrast, the Sun is about taking active actions and constant motion:

*A magic man discovered the Universe
Deep down inside the knowledge is immersed.
Delving deep into its hidden essence
Are lots of paths wrapped in obsolescence.*

Improvement areas of the 18th code (attitude/life approaches that need to be reworked and need your special attention) also known as unworked-out negative karma:

- this is the dark Moon in you, meaning all thoughts and imagination take a negative direction
- depressions, getting stuck in the illusory and unreal world for too long
- unwillingness to contact the world and people
- mental illnesses
- obsession with negativity, mania, apathy, not wishing to live in the real world, escaping it through alcohol and drugs, dark magic
- fears, phobias
- messing with criminal structures
- duplicity, wearing masks
- lying
- gossiping

Karmic how to's:

- find out your fears and work them through
- take an objective look at yourself
- work on developing your intuition and study the laws of energy and materializing, the laws of attraction
- clear your mind of negative thoughts
- clear your consciousness of negative mental images
- follow your heart and intuition
- develop a healing ability while you sleep
- follow the cyclic nature of the Moon and its phases
- learn the laws of magic, or attraction
- think about things you want to get in life rather than those you do not

- work through your reticence and depressive downbeat states
- clear your aura and soul, then you will feel better physically and psychologically
- perform an in- depth practice of acceptance and forgiveness
- watch how your consciousness works, learn to live in the present moment, the key of life magic is in the moment “here and now”
- learn to identify and single out the most important things in life, rather than minor ones, focus on them
- be consistent, write down your aims in detail, make a decision to stay in reality, rather than in illusions and fantasy world
- learn to trust, get rid of your suspiciousness
- tell the truth.

The 19th code of the Destiny Matrix 22 codes©. The energy of the SUN and LIGHT

Affirmation: My glow is visible by many people. I share it with the World.

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

The 19th code – The energy of the Sun and Light:

*Prosperity, the light of my soul,
Abundance, the Sun of my goals,
Come to me, remain and shine,
Like you do, glowing in the planet's spine.
You come to those awaiting you;
Those who pray calling for true.
I have found you, with fortune's help I will be nourished.
I have made friends with you, the whole world will flourish.*

The 19th code people have a unique ability to shine, and consequently, share their creative talents and energy potential unconditionally with the rest of the world. They are very open-hearted with extremely powerful energy. The Sun shines for everyone, not singling anyone out. It's just there and rises in the sky, with people choosing whether or not to come out, actively tuning into the new day. This is why, Sun people attract numerous contacts in their lives. Collective social energy is active in their destiny. They win recognition and draw attention fast and easy being able to demonstrate a clear leadership position. The Sun cannot stay in shadow for too long. It will be noticed by everyone once it has risen or come out of a cloud. These people usually have global mission. Having set their aims, they can act with great vigour to achieve them. They stay positive and rarely feel depressed or despair. Sadness is not for them. However, they can become upset when staying out of active or creative work. Life is bustling with creativity for them. All things must tune into active work as sunrays appear in the sky at sunrise. So, these guys are unable to understand how other people do nothing, be passive or idle. They feel dispirited by a position like that. Not everyone is destined to be the Sun, right? People have different types of energy by destiny. The 19th code has the most active yang energy, the energy of action. This is the reason why the Universe usually entrusts these people with serious, important, global tasks such as creating, spreading knowledge, light, kindness, love, beauty, healing, warmth. Doesn't it make you feel happy when you see the Sun in the sky? Your heart is singing, the sunshine is adding colours into things around. However, it is important that the 19th code people understand their strong influence on the rest of the world. If the Sun keeps shining at one single spot, it'll simply catch fire and burn down because of the immense power of fire. In the same way, these people must focus their attention to one person, one life situation only: instead of sharing kindness and love, they can hurt without knowing. Their energy must be spread among many people. That said, they should engage in proactive activities to use their energy potential throughout their lives, at work, I mean, elsewhere leaving soft and warm rays for their family at home, rather than the burning heat of the Sun.

How can you lock the Sun up under lock and key? There's no way for you to. That done, people might start feeling unwell self-actualizing and producing energy that will not be there. Inner burning is what follows it. Therefore, the 19th code people should watch that their energy is directed towards social activity or creative process. They need to work to feel useful and committed. 'The Sun always shines!' Sun people love spaciousness, big houses and condos. Broad nature is their characteristics.

You have been blessed with great shining potential. You possess the unconditional energy of sharing love with all living things on Earth. Yours is very active and creative energy. You are an accumulator of it; you owing to that, many people feel warm beside. And it is important for you to figure out the sphere of social activity where you could implement your skills. To you alone, God has given you a task worth for many people. Social activity is your thing. Go for any project in this area. You have a leader's energy, so lead people, be inspired by high and spiritual causes. Your task is to participate in improving and healing of the Earth and its people. You have been given such abilities: to educate people's minds and consciousness, enlighten and fill with love whole-heartedly. Your mission is to shine and inspire, becoming a part of peacekeeping missions on the planet, meditate for the sake of healing the Earth. In your everyday life, try to serve a good example for people around. It is through your positivity, through your spiritual work that those near you become enlightened too.

Watch your emotions, thoughts coming to your mind, for they have a powerful energy message into the world. Unconditionally plant the good seeds, expecting nothing in return, because you are the Sun indeed. And the Sun just shines, rising on the horizon every morning. Try to free yourself from resentment and indignation – they are the opposite to your positive emotions. Use the practice of forgiveness to free your soul from all inhibiting factors. Let go of the old stuff, clear the past, do not worry about the physical world. If you stay in the flow of sun energy and have a high and kind goals being tuned into good things, material riches are bound to come to your life; Higher forces protecting you.

Take good care of your physical body. Strengthen your spirit. Reduce excessive control over your family, do not concentrate your energy on one person for a long time, stop worrying about them, entrust their protection to the Universe. Pray for their spiritual enlightening, meditate. Visualise them and yourself in a sphere of golden light – this will be a powerful protection, because your mental images work strong. Remember about the Sun and sunrise, about your fair sunny destiny during hard times in your life and call your glowing Sun angels to help and protect you, and you will see how any negative situation changes for the better. But be sure to thank the Angels for their help.

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

Every day the Sun rises in the skies, and the new day arrives. People wait for daylight to be able to tune in their work, start acting and achieving their goals. The Sun never play tricks, nor does it say it is not going to go out today hiding a new day. It understands that millions of people on Earth are there waiting for it; it manages and control all Universal cycles out there. To be the Sun is a good mission for everyone! You are needed! To realize this means to be happy!

Once there was a wise old villager who knew that there lived a sunny boy in the same village too. Once he saw that boy mad and unhappy. He was having an argument with his mother because he did not want to babysit his little sister, he wanted to go out with his peers instead. The old man waited until the boy calmed down, then he asked him to come up and began his tale, "Look, this is the Sun, he said. Every day it comes out to the horizon, sending us light and warmth. And it does not ask for anything in return from us, right? We do not pay the Sun to do that, we are not afraid that one day it will not go out. We are all happy to see it. And the Sun is happy too. It can see people wake up and start their work, flowers and trees turn their heads and leaves to it; with its first rays, everything blooms and returns to life. The Sun realizes its important and kind mission for the Earth. Now, inside you my boy lives a little Sun too and so your mother asks you to help her all the time just like that, because you are the one who can shine selflessly. If you do not fight back, when you grow up, the big Sun will still keep on shining inside, which will send warmth to many people understand? Thus, you will be able to help many people. And many people will need your sunshine too.” The boy listened to the wise man’s tale and did not refuse to help his mother anymore, with his parents never stopping to wonder about what happened to him.

So, dear readers, what do you think did the wise old man actually mean? Sun people are selfless, open-hearted, shining, ready to share their energy and warmth. We can benefit from their warm energy.

The 20th code of the Destiny Matrix 22 codes©. The energy of ANNUNCIATION

Affirmation: I am in the flow of clairgnosis of the Universal information field.

My ancestral channels are clear. I feel support from my ancestors. My ancestral channels are healed.

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

The 20th code

The 20th code – the energy of Annunciation:

*Heavenly music is heard all around,
Heavenly music is my heart's best sound.
Heavenly music and the stars will blend,
Listen to this melody in quiet till the end.
There in silence, a flower will blossom,
Mystical, magical, heavenly, awesome.
Its beauty exquisite, like love's serenade.
Open the door, take a seat and don't be afraid.*

People born with the 20th code are good at perceiving information from the Universal information field and send it into the world as energy conduits. They are mystical by nature and stay closely connected with Heaven. They have extrasensory perception and wonderful intuition, they also have prophetic dreams and flashes of enlightened consciousness; it may sound like an extraordinary idea crosses their mind, yet it clearly is not a product of logical thinking making them feel surprised, "How do I know about this?"

The 20th code people are inborn healers, they can sense energy and cure diseases. They are connected with their ancestors with one karma, that is one karmic task to fulfil, and consequently, they are to heal their ancestral karma during their lives. It means to try to live in a different way than their parents and ancestors did. In Tarot cards, the 20th Arcanum is a funnel between the world of the living and the world of the deceased. For this reason, our relatives who passed away can use dreams to visit the 20th code people and share information. They understand life and death philosophy. Usually, they have no fear of death and can work in areas related to this process.

They take interest in everything enigmatic and unidentified, often finding their professional niche in working with data and IT. These people are energetically strong, possessing Heaven's guidance and protection. Since birth, they know that God exists. They like developing spiritually, studying Universal laws. They are able to pass the New Age information to people on the planet should they develop clairgnosis. In everyday life, the 20th code people are versatile, with a wide scope of interests and hobbies.

It is very important for them to give up on aggression, learn to forgive, not to be judgemental, dividing the world into good and evil, avoid being cruel, and controlling their family. They need to come to positive thinking since their thoughts materialize in no time. Heaven can hear them! Angels are by their side.

Spiritual mission sent from above for the 20th code people:

*Open your heart, open your soul,
In this instant, listen to Heaven's call.
Fathom the mysteries of being,
There everyone is loved: both you and me, believe it?
Fathom the mysteries of being,
There everyone is guarded, that's the whole meaning.*

You have the blissful gift of clairaudience, passing on the information of karmic healing as well as control over ways of healing karma and karmic illnesses. You are able to receive information about people's past lives, about their life tasks. You have the mission of passing on new knowledge that is in keeping with the New Age, the age of people's and the planet's spiritual awakening. You are capable of contributing your share in the process of the human crossing over into new qualities of energy. Develop spiritually, meditate. Cleanse your thoughts of negativity. Write down a list of your spiritual tasks, in addition to material goals. Having gained the guidance from above, do your best to tune into passing on the new knowledge. Take down worth and interesting ideas. Keep a spiritual diary, a diary of your dreams. Treat this exclusive information that comes to you with care.

Cleanse your physical body of toxins for your energy channels to be conducting well; look for like-minded people, those who share your beliefs. Free your living space from old clutter, keep everything neat and tidy. Try practicing burning candles – they symbolize the spiritual world and clear the consciousness from daily fuss. Take care of yourself and try to stay in harmony with the outside world and people around. Do not get way too helicoptering about your family members, let them live their lives, instead serve a positive example of for them. You have a great spiritual potential and talents. Let go of the material stuff more often, direct your thoughts and prayers to God!

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

Your life is a moment between Heaven and Earth, between the past and the future. It is either a spark that has flared up brightly from the flame of the Divine source of light, or a spark burning in the flame of passion.

Where are you, do you think? Who are you? Why have you come to stay on the Earth? Why have you ascended from Heaven again? And why do you get inspired by Heaven over and over again? The answers to these questions are there, and they are written in the book of your destiny. They are hidden in the signs of your life. At times, they might seem vivid, while at times – barely perceptible. To be able to pinpoint them, we must stay in a deep meditation, become an open, pure conduit of universal clairgnosis energy, relying on Celestial Angels, who deliver the truth. To be able to hear them, we need to create silence in our head, slow down and hold up our racing thoughts, be able to become disconnected from triviality, futile actions and words, from unnecessary emotions. To become the Universal Love, to feel this energy in your whole body, in every single cell, in its every, even the furthest, secret corner of the subconscious. Only love and acceptance can heal at the deepest levels of destiny and give a chance to access the true knowledge of the Universe! If your heart is not filled with enough love, you will not be a true conduit of Light. So, open your heart to Universal Love and save its kind potential, and then the way to boundless possibilities will be yours according to the 20th code. Then the truth will flow through you like a sparkling life-giving, crystal clear water stream. Now close your eyes and you might hear its magical sounds and music!.. Trickle-trickle! Trickle-trickle! It's there!

The 21st code of the Destiny Matrix 22 codes©. The energy of the UNIVERSE and EXPANSION

Affirmation: All global borders are open to me. I successfully accomplish any global projects. I am a peace-maker! Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

The 21st code

The 21st code – the energy of the Universe and Expansion:

*I am staying peaceful,
Feeling easy and nice in my mind...
We've unveiled the glory and blissful -
And good stuff is being so good and so kind.
The Universe is our friend and is open
To the joy of our singing souls here,
Saying prayers, feeling blessed is our hoping,
That more kindness is found to be near.*

The 21st code people are deeply connected with the entire existence — all things surrounding them and the global world. Those are very sensitive, susceptible and peaceful people. They are usually natural healers, diplomats, trouble-shooters; aimed at accomplishing global tasks in their minds. They are curious about things not only about their personal life, but about nationwide, planetwide and universe-wide things. They always sense the presence and guidance of the higher forces since their childhood years. They trust that anything is possible, rarely limiting themselves in their plans, hopes and dreams. Should they study history, what will spark their interest will be global history, world politics or religions of the world etc. All their perception is targeted at extending and expanding any frameworks and borders.

They wish to bring good to many people. Those are their true intentions. Devotedly and with open heart, they get inspired by positive ideas and ideals. They can lead many people provided that they direct themselves and their huge potential onto good intentions, tasks. The 21st code opens world borders to these people. They are great at foreign languages, they travel a lot, choosing an activity that relates to global connections. That can be either companies influencing global arena, or involving overseas trips. The entire planet is their home: wherever they are, they feel at home, finding ways fast and easy, adapting to various climates with no problems at all. They are extrasensory people, able to heal others via energies of the Universe. They often receive information coming from the Universal source. They are great meditators, doomed to participate in global projects, contributing their lion's share of their energies, power and will. The 21st code people used to be the driving force of world developments, leaving their unique trace in the history. Among them, we can name Joseph Stalin (the 21st code celebrity leader) What the 21st 'coders' find crucial to achieve is to unite all people of the planet. A motto appeals to them: "World peace!" All people unite. All people are akin souls! They care about preserving nature, environment, being animal lovers, flowers and plant admirers, they find it hard to stay in small and confined spaces. They are fond of large houses and Earth's vast expenses.

Spiritual mission sent from above for the 21st code people:

*The Universe is open for love,
With all living things relishing the bliss.
It is inside, it is outside, pouring from above.
Look up! Fly high, enjoy God's true kiss.
Flow down like a river deep –
in love, in harmony at heart.
Reach out to the very tops of mountain steep,
That IS your greatest art!*

Your true heart filled with your supreme desire to work hard for the sake of happiness of many people is what unites you with them. It is good you lead denominations bringing the world, all religions and spiritual movements, since there can be just one top of the mountain with multiple paths to climb it. It is important to get the message across to people that by spirit we are sisters and brothers like the Creator made us. The world is our home, which we strive to preserve, heal, the prosperity and abundance and light of which we wish to enrich; to bring a brand new atmosphere into our planet - one filled with new energies, lighter, happier, more creative and spiritual ones. Do unite progressive and bright things for the sake of our planet's healing.

Get inspired with things and ideals for the sake of others. Discover the world for yourself and for others via your creativity! Try to do your best to meditate on 21st day of each month at 21:21 (your local time) for the healing of our planet, visualizing it grow thriving, people become prosperous, healthy and happy. Believe in well-being and prosperity of the Universe, set a vivid optimistic and vivacious example for other people. Accept the entire world as an integrity, do not fight wars, just advocate peace. Proclaim world peace and global prosperity. Your peace-making energy is truly powerful. So be the light and inspiration fire of love for you and others!

Thank you, thank you, thank you.

Now visualize all people of the world holding their hands with love energy coming from heart to heart from one person to another. In this circle, we are all equal, we are one: both a banker and a worker. All are warmed with the same energy of the Universe, where there are no differentiations, conditions, social or religious differences. We are all the same, beautiful and loved by the energy of the peace. Imagine we are all speaking the same language, the language of the soul, the language of the unconditional love at the very moment and the Earth is getting healed, receiving a powerful positive impulse from the souls of all people of the world. Close your eyes for a minute and try to visualize the whole picture in your mind, just be there in the meditation, feeling a powerful healing and loving impulse. On sensing that, tell about it and share with other people. Let the meditation spread across the planet.

The 22nd code of the Destiny Matrix 22 codes©. The energy of FREEDOM

Affirmation: I am free in my choices. My life is a flight across the Earth.

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

The 22nd code

The 22nd code -the energy of Freedom:

*Adventurous and brave - you are a hero!
Your game is simple, careless that's your mirror.
Those are free who fear not moving on
And living their life like flying - hear their song!
Those who are free, they think like free
There ain't no sorrow, just esprit!
They know the beauty of the world:
creation, living dream, things whirled...
He who's got all roads open just for him -
Holds on to no wealth or gold, he's filled to brim
With other riches... Laughing at the trouble
I'm joker! You know me friends? I am bubble!*

The 22ers are people free from any dogmas, limits, and prohibitions. The 22nd code like the 21st sees the world cohesively. Its heart, will and mind are subdued to the Universal love and fulfilling global tasks opening the way to freedom, flight of thought and dreaming your dreams. "Soar over any limitations, taste the real freedom!" says the 22nd code. 'Let your wings grow and I will fly across the Earth, see its width, marvel at its seas, dear lands, splendor of mountains and real beauty!' I will see things I can see and share it with people. Would you respond to the knowledge? I am grateful.' A representative of the 22nd code is a traveler changing a road to road with their swag over the shoulder in a loose linen clothing. It is a vivid image of a tramp with all world's boundaries open for them. Those are globetrotters, enlightened teachers, performers, saltimbancos, buffoons.

22nd code-supportive performers prefer easy and comic roles. That type puts their freedom as a fundamental inner principle as top priority. It is pointless to try and limit them, for they will give it all up and still continue going their own road. Life is adventure and a road for them. A road which is easy and free, that you need to go down happily, laughing at hardships and sorrows in the eye:

*With other riches... Laughing at the trouble
I'm joker! You know me friends? I am bubble!*

That type is open-hearted people. They can bring light of freedom free from limits, they are light messengers. All their life is full of events, networking and making friends. They are easy-going. Being nature lovers, they prefer hiking in a tent as R&R, a night under the stars near campfire where all the heaven and the Universe is beside. So, they are guarded by angels and protected. They know clearly what the cyclicity in life means and repeating pattern from one stage to another. Most of the time, they do not hold on to the Earth's riches, since spiritual things are their top priority. All religions are identical to them, all people are one, for the Earth is their home. That is a creative type, sensitive and intuitive. It is tough for them to stay still, they are attracted by the dust of roads and Heaven cloudlands. Enjoying every moment of their life is their life motto. Leading people to their true freedom and summit of the spirit are their wishes and aspirations. Living life easily, going your way simply, relishing the world in simplicity —all the embodiment about the 22nd code. Adventurous, moving happily into unknown spheres, people starting new cycles and things, discovering new roads, brave and courageous folks, trusting Lord unconditionally, feeling His unison with themselves, His protection and guidance in each life moment—that is all about the 22nd code being accompanied by extraordinary spiritual strength.

Spiritual mission sent from above for the 22nd code people:

*The world is versatile with plenty roads to take,
So, take them, fearing not, your makeup never flakes!
You'll find yourself in rivers, seas and woods,
On sunny sands, in children's eyes, in people goods,
Just look up higher, combatting your fears!
Your wealth are thoughts, your love and even happy tears.
New roads and ways will surely open up!
Just pick up one and tread it, make your own happy club!
But should the way be wrong for you –
So, make your choice, find another, true.
Do search, explore and follow through...*

Your soul will show you the right door. Your soul is eager to find its reflection in creativity. Creative self-expression will fill you up with energy, joy igniting your passion for life. You are destined to be a life example to show people new roads and ways, learn to pry yourself from material stuff showing others your way, staying happy and joyful illustration for your family and friends. Your optimism and open heart heals any mental ailments. It is up to you to help people give up on their illusions and limits they have built for themselves in their minds and imagination.

Learn new languages and travel across the globe! Tell people the story about integral universe. Strive to reach the ease in anything and anyplace, yet learn to be responsible and self-disciplined. Understand that you live among people in society, laws, politics and morality. Do your best to respect and fit in social societal structure. Perhaps, when the world reaches the unconditional integrity of ideas and sensations, that stuff will no longer be needed, yet, you are the one to unite all people under the same roof called The Planet Earth!

Thank you, thank you, thank you.

To let yourself have everything still lingering to none — that is the taste of real freedom – the 22nd code's freedom!

Thank you, thank you, thank you!

...A man is standing on top of the mountain with his arms stretched out to the wind blowing, his face and hair is being fanned by the fresh and free wind of change, while he is standing with his face and chest towards it. His breath is deep and even, he is breathing in the air of true freedom; majestic snow-capped mountain tops of Tibet are in front of him. Yet the man stays calm and happy, his eyes are radiating the freedom of his strong spirit, his inner core and the energy living in him, singing the song and melody of the true freedom. You are one with the universe, so share this quality with all people of the world! Thank you, thank you, thank you!

A wanderer is going, wearing loose linen clothes, with his swag and a water bottle over his shoulder. He is going down the road, tossing dust with his bare feet in his shabby sandals, but his heart and his soul are happy and singing the ode to the road dust being so dear and known to him. So, that affinity and the feeling of flight is forever. It is higher than any earthly riches, because his chest is breathing in the air of true freedom, his lips are tasting the true freedom, and his eyes and his heart is the true fire of the oneness with the universe! Both God and the Creator will show you your shelter and lend a helping hand. All you need is have trust and be in unity with your free soul!

HOW TO CALCULATE YOUR DESTINY MAP (MATRIX) USING YOUR BIRTHDAY DIGITS

Let us try to use an example and calculate someone's destiny who was born on 05/01/1969. Their destiny map consists of two squares – one of which is straight while the other is diagonal. There are straight and diagonal crosses within each square. What initially happens is that you start filling our Matrix using your birthday digits. If your date of birth is double-valued, you need to add the two digits to get the actual code. This is what we keep doing with all numerics you come across in your map, ending up with the final one-digit code. The bottom-line is to work within the 22 codes. There is no 23 code –you will have to add 2+3 and so on.

THE FIRST STEP

Here, we need to work on the diagonal square. We will start from filling the horizontal line which stands for the Earth line. Write down your birthday in the left-hand corner of the line. It is 1 in this illustration we are using, make your own.

THE SECOND STEP

The next corner of the diagonal square, its upper spot of the Vertical line stands for the month of your birthday. In this case, it is 5. The spot of your guardian angel. Again, we are using the illustration of a birthday 05/01/1969.

THE THIRD STEP

Then we need to fill the right-hand corner of the diagonal square which is your birth year. Now we are adding all year digits to get the code and write the number down in this corner which you may find on the Earth line in the right-hand corner. In our illustration it looks like: the year of 1969: adding all $1+9+6+9=25$ and then $2+5=7$ which is the actual code. Consequently, 7 is what needs to go in this very corner.

THE FOURTH STEP

The next corner is the bottom one of the diagonal square and is calculated by adding the previous three calculated values we did before. This is what we get: $14-5+7=13$.

THE FIFTH STEP

Here we need to calculate the first personal center of your destiny map: $1+5+7+13=28=8$. This is your personal strength center. This is your comfort zone. We ended up with a filled diagonal square and the center. There is one more straight square and we need to find the value of its corners.

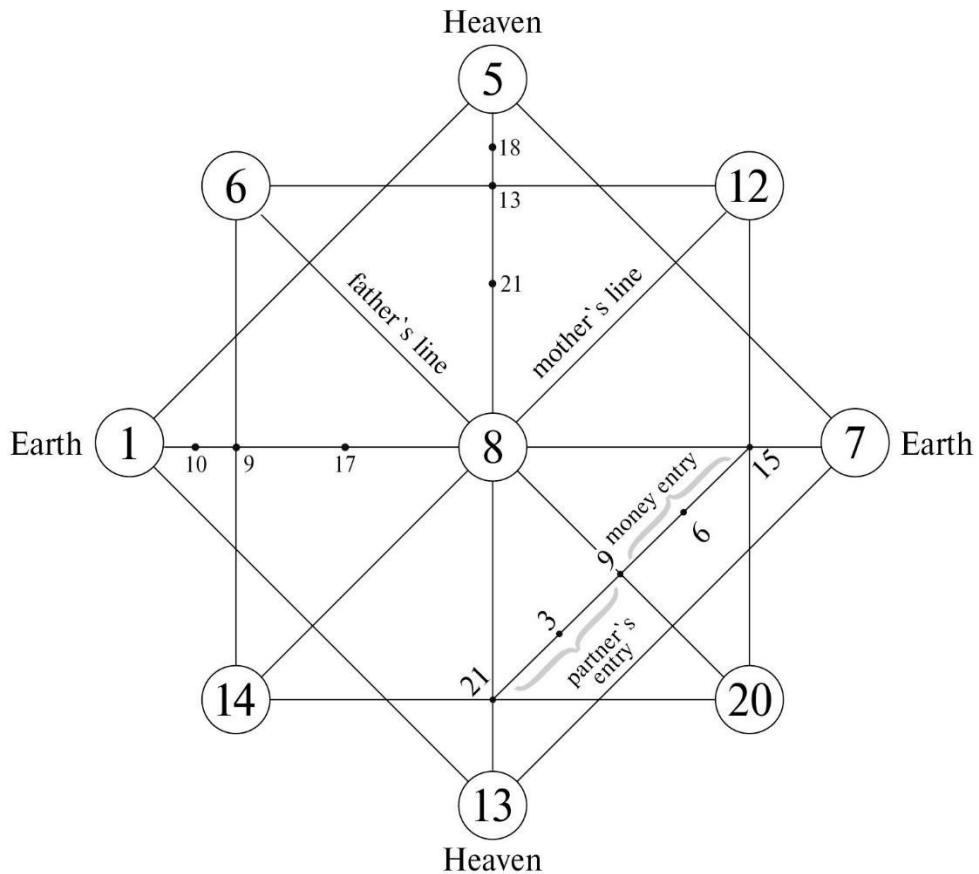

THE SIXTH STEP

Let us calculate the straight square which is your family square. We need to find all its corners by adding its extreme values, I mean the ones we got before (its neighboring values) from the diagonal square. We can use different colors to fill the squares and their corresponding values for better illustration. In this case, we ended up with the following: $1+5=6$, $5+7=12$, $7+13=20$ and $13+1=14$.

THE SEVENTH STEP

After we are done with finding the values of the straight square which are 6, 12, 20, 14, we need to look for its center which is the second center of the destiny matrix or what we call the center of your family strength. For that purpose, we are adding all the values we got of the straight square. In our case, those are $6+12+20+14 = 52=5+2=7$, therefore, the second center of the Destiny Matrix is our family center and equals to 7.

0	1	0	5	1	9	6	9

EXPLANATION (detailed description of 8 destiny levels):

1. The first destiny stands for your personal Heavenly destiny mission. We calculate it by your Heaven line (the vertical line of your Destiny Matrix). Go ahead and add the two extreme spots the top one which is 5 and the bottom one which is 13 ending up with a key to the Heavenly energies of your personal destiny: $5 + 13 = 18$ (the numbers, as you remember are exemplary ones of someone who was born on 05/01/1969. Your personal Heavenly destiny consists of the digits 5, 13, 18 and embodies your spiritual life, your spiritual lessons and energy system, it is exactly here where all chakras (energy centers) are located, it is exactly the line which is responsible for your aura and seven subtle bodies, I mean, your spiritual achievements from your past incarnations. The Heavenly line is your accumulated energy potential.

2. The second destiny is your personal Earthly destiny. How do we calculate it? We use the Earth line (the horizontal line of your Matrix. What happens next is that we add the two extreme codes on this line and get the same key of your personal Earthly destiny. The personal Earthly destiny 1,7, 8 is our earthly life and all things we can create around and inside of us in our physical world, it is a 'home' we live in, our physical body, a money flow and material riches. It is our health condition (or sickness). It is our perpetuation and giving birth to our children. It is creation of our own life.

3. The third destiny is our personal whole/integral/coherent destiny. It involves our integral connection of the two important worlds – the heavenly and the earthly ones, that is, our spiritual life in a well-balanced tune with the physical. Human integrity implies our simultaneous development in the two worlds, just like life circulation between heaven and earth, just like connection of the Heaven and the Earth, yin and yang, night and day etc. To do that, we need to add the total value of the spiritual destiny and the earthly destiny ending up with the following key via our personal whole cross - $18 + 8 = 8$.

Your personal integral destiny with $18 + 8 = 8$ includes the connection of the Heavenly line and the Earthly line into a personal whole straight cross in the Destiny Matrix map.

4. The fourth destiny is your destiny according to your father's line. It is stipulated by family lines and embodies your father's line, this line is a diagonal line closer to your date of birth. You need to add the two extreme codes and get the destiny key by your father's line: $6 + 20 = 26$; as you know, there is no 26th code, thus, what you need to do is, again, add $2+6 = 8$. Your father's line destiny with 6, 20, 8 is a key showing which energies are your masculine characteristics and which characterize relationships with men in society as well as your mission for your father's line.

5. The fifth destiny is your destiny according to your mother's line, being your mission by your mother's family and the second diagonal line from your date of birth. We need to add here the two extreme codes and get the destiny key by our mother's line: $12 + 14 = 26 = 8$. The destiny by our mother's line with the digits –12,14,8 is the key showing which energies are developed in your female nature and which ones characterize your relationships with women in society as well as your mission for your mother's family.

6. The sixth destiny is your integral family destiny, destiny of your both lines reconciled. This is a simultaneous mission for the two family lines as a mission of bringing them together. We calculate it by adding the total destiny of your father and that of your mother. In this illustration, it equals $8+8=16$.

The integral family destiny of the family reconciliation lines with 8,8,16 is the key to bring your family lines together. At the same time, it serves as the key to your social role, your mission in society among other people. It is vividly shown in the last digit 16.

7. The seventh destiny is your personal Divine destiny. It is your personal journey of discovering God deep down within, cognition of the Divine, it is calculated by adding your final integral personal destiny number with the final family destiny number (the number of the third and the sixth destiny numbers): $8 + 16 = 24 = 6$.

The personal divine destiny (gaining insight of God) with 8, 16, 6 is discovering your superpower, calcinosis, clairaudience, clairvoyance, intuition and prophetic dreams. It is your ability to read signs on your way, sense energy flows and heal with your hands. Live in harmony, fair and kind states, with a kind heart.

It is an embodiment of your opening up to God, getting connected to the Higher forces and your journey of spiritual practices, meditations and prayers and via what codes it is easy to learn.

8. The eighth destiny is your supreme divine mission for people, carrying their divine skills to other people. It is destiny of global and wide projects of any sort of activities across the world. We can calculate it by adding the final integral family destiny number and the final personal divine destiny numbers are: 16, 6, 22.

The destiny of the Divine mission for people with the digits 16, 6, 22: power centers (personal, family and compound)

Now let us calculate your personal power center which you can find inside the destiny matrix. It is your personal comfort zone. You can do so by adding all 4 corner energies of the diagonal square. In this illustration those are: $1 + 5 + 7 + 13 = 26 = 8$. This is the energy of your inner center, where you cling to, where you feel comfortable being positive at, and accordingly, where you lose your inner strength, losing your balance, with life falling apart should you stay negative. Then we need to calculate the energy of your family strength also located as the second number in the matrix center in brackets (.), it can be calculated by adding all 4 corner values of the straight square. in this case, those are $6 + 12 + 20 + 14 = 52 = 7$. The code of the family strength equals to 7.

If the energy stays positive, it is your central one and your mission of bringing kindness to your family of both lines as well as peace-keeping mission for them. In this illustration, a descendant was born to bring two families together from hostility, work out keys to do that according to all 7 generations. That done, hostility and intransigence will go away inside the person. These are inner family programs staying at war with one another with the descendant's mission to be a peace-keeper throughout their life. The same very key is projected onto their role in the society.

Then we need to calculate the key of the compound whole strength finding it by adding the code of their personal strength with the code of the family strength: $8 + 7 = 15$. The code of the whole strength (and global projects) - 15.

To get access to your global projects in your destiny you need to fulfil your mission by all your destinies!

Now, let's decipher the central matrix corners

The diagonal personal square:

Your date of birth is your personality energy, in this example it is the 1st code.

It stands for your personal characteristics. The upper spot of the diagonal square means your connection with heaven. This is an energy of your personal guardian angel given to you at birth. In this example, it is the 5th code.

The next corner of the diagonal square across from your date of birth is an energy of a result and physical potential. It is the most influential on your physical well-being and responsible for that. In this illustration, it is the 7th code.

The center of the matrix is a personal comfort zone as well as your personal strength center, through which you interact with society. In this case, it is 8, an energy you cling to, as your assemblage point. This is your safety area and self-protection spot. If positive, you gain energy, while if otherwise, you lose power, all life falling apart, you start feeling a shift of balance. The bottom corner of the diagonal square is the most unworked out energy from your past incarnations, your main life tripper. In this case, it is the 13th code – stuff you took from the past, thus, you want to learn all its negative characteristic and work on it, on your features and make them positive out of negative.

The straight family square

The corners of the straight square stand for your family channels. The two upper codes are your father's family guardian angels and those of your mother's line. Those are family support energies. From the level of positivity of the energies you receive support from outside. Those are the energies through which you realize what spiritual potential our families accumulated in the past.

The two bottom corners speak about your main unworked out family lessons to learn. As well as about material and genetic heredity. (Make sure you study negative characteristics of the codes carefully). The negative characteristics can go from generation to generation.

How to calculate chakras

Here (on the vertical line which is also the Heaven line) we need to mark a projection of the 7 chakras which you find in the following way: you calculate your energy potential of the 7 chakras on the Heaven line: Sahasrara, or “Thousandfold” is there—this is a tip top of the diagonal square, in this case, it is the 5th code. This chakra is responsible for your beliefs system and connection with Heaven, for your energy supply and protection.

Ajna (the third eye) is calculated by adding the values of Sahasrara and Vishudha, thus, ending up with the value of the third eye. In our example, it is $5+13=18$. It is responsible for your thinking and intuition processes.

Vishudha (the throat chakra) can be determined by adding the values of the crown and the central chakras. in this example, those are: $5+8=13$. This is a creativity and self-expression chakra, you can use it to analyze your self-actualization. As well as diagnose what types of creativity are best for you.

Anahata (the heart chakra) is found by adding the extreme values of Vishudha and Manipura. In this example, those are: $13+8=21$. This is a chakra of your feelings and emotions, you are recommended to heal your energy on it from the point of view of your soul cleansing and improving your emotional well-being.

Manipura (solar plexus) is your center. In this example, it is the 8th code. This is a chakra of your connection with the outside world, society, making it positive, you harmonize your relationships with other people and situations happening, promoting yourself and recognizing your role among other people.

Svadhisthana (the navel chakra) can be located by adding the extreme values to it, i.e. the value of the center+the bottom spot of the diagonal square (the spot corresponds to Muladhara). Example: $13+8=21$. This is your partner-sexual chakra as well as one of opening up your money flow. Should its energy stay positive, you will then tend to attract happy and karmically pure relationships, while if otherwise, you will be blocking your partners or attract disharmony people to learn your karmic lessons. I am talking about your karmic teachers.

Muladhara (the root chakra) equals to a value from the bottom spot of the diagonal square which you are already familiar with this is the 13th code. The chakra is responsible for your past relationships bearing the energy of old times and connection with the Earth. In the same way, you can calculate your chakras by the Earth line:

Sahasrara is 1 in the illustration.

Ajna is 10.

Vishudha is 9.

Anahata is 17.

Svadhisthana is 15.

Muladhara is 7.

The Earth chakras carry information about your physical parts in areas where the chakras are located.

Your health map

Based on the values of the found chakras on the Heaven and Earth lines, you can draw your health map, adding the values of the Earth line and that of the Earth line ending up with the health key. In the chart below the chakras information, we included your organs located in the chakras areas, thus, influenced by a particular chakra.

All you need to do is draw a chart, where you will include the value we have calculated about each chakra, energy potential, I mean the Heaven line and the physical potential, that is the Earth line. Then we need to find the total potential of each chakra by adding the two received values on each level ending up with your health key.

Chakras	Energy (the Heaven line)	Physical potential (the Earth line)	Your health key
Sahasrara (brain, hair, the upper part of your skull).	5 +	1=	5,1,6
Ajna (occipital cortex and temporal lobe of the brain, eyes, ears, nose face, upper jaw, teeth, upper jaw teeth, optic nerve brain cortex).	18 +	10 =	18,10,10
Vishudha (thyroid gland, windpipe, bronchi, throat, vocal cords, shoulders, arms, nuchal bone, all neck bones).	13 +	9=	13,9,22
Anahata (heart, blood circulation system, respiratory organs, t-spine, spatulate spinal zone, lacteal glands in women).	21 +	17=	21 17 11
Manipura (gastric tract, abdominal cavity organs, pancreas, spleen, liver, gal bladder, small intestines, the central part of the spine) Svadhisthana (atrabiliar capsules, uterus and ovaries, kidneys, prostate gland in men, lumbar spine).	8 + 21+	8 = 15=	8,8,16 21,15,19
Muladhara (urinary tract, lower limbs, large intestines, tailbone, sacrum, legs)	13 +	7=	13,7,20

System organs (blood system, nervous system, lymphatic system, immune system etc.) – are those organs we can find in our whole body.	We need to add all values in the column: 5+18+13+21+8 + 21+13=9+9=19	Need to add all values in the column as well: =67=8+7=13	We need to add all values in the final column: $= 94 = 9+4=13$, Consequently ending up with the system key which is =18,13,13

After you are finished calculating the total value of each chakra, got the triadic health key on all codes, now it is exactly what you are going to use to heal your diseases. This particular key you use to view possible deviations and health issues. In any particular organ, we can heal an issue. While using the system key (immune system, bone system, cardiovascular system, lymphatic system, blood system, nervous system, etc.) you were able to calculate, you can treat system diaseses in our bodies. The key we got by adding all codes of the column energy, and all codes in the physics with the total potential of each chakra. Example: energy: $5+18+13+21+8+21+13 = 99 = 18$. physical: $1+9+10+17+8+15+7 = 67 = 13$. Total: $6+10+22+114-16+9+20-94 = 9+4-13$, The key: 18, 13, 13.

PARTNER-MONEY ENTRY

By the Earth line the protentional of Svadhisthana corresponds to the Partner-Money entry:
Example: 15

By the Heavenly line the potential of Svadhisthana corresponds to the Partner entry:
Example: 21.

Either negative or positive nature of your potential of the energies in the entries work for attracting money and partners or rejecting them. All potentials of the energies in the Method are changed by your spiritual work on working out your codes. I various techniques of changing potentials of the energies from negative into positive.

HEALING WAYS

The most unique information of the knowledge lies in the fact that there is no such a thing as fate or doom and that it is up to us to control our energies given us at birth – it is up to us to work on them, healing them transforming into positive karma hereby solving even the toughest life situations and diseases!

Now let us take a look at possible steps to use the Destiny Matrix your birthday digits.

STEP 1

You are going to use your date of birth information.

STEP 2

You take a close look at the codes (their positive and negative characteristics) and their description in the Matrix.

STEP 3

Now you start transforming your negative energies into positive via meditation techniques as well as prayers, affirmations and mantras.

STEP 4

You take a more in-depth studies of the Destiny Matrix and do the calculations. (website: www.ladini22.com) *

STEP 5

If needed, you go up higher and have yourself initiated into the clairgnosis, karmic healing and rituals performing channel to cleanse your karma.

STEP 6

You work on your body through karmic massage, exercising, diet and specific rituals. (All techniques were designed by Natalia Ladini).

STEP 7

Healing and codes transformation via coloring mandalas Natalia's copyright property. Practicing art-therapy.

STEP 8

Developing your intuition using the Method card, altars, ritual table covers and structured healing water.

STEP 9

What is also helpful and actively practiced and recommended by the author is going on retreat trips with Natalia and her husband Andrey. Performing techniques from sacral trips taken by Natalia across the world.

The healing gratitude technique. The meditation of gratitude

*I am thankful to the skies above
For things I have got, my life and love,
For people being there for me –
They one with me, they are one with.*

*I am giving thanks for mighty Sun,
For waking up each morning, fun,
For you and me, good gracious Lord!
For this wonderful world.*

If you do not notice kind things, your heart is asleep. While if you sleep for too long, your life passes by. Thus, stay grateful for things life gives you, all things you have got now. If you stay grateful today, you will get even more tomorrow. I am thankful for all things I had in my life. With deepest gratitude, I am letting go of my past. I am grateful for all lessons I have learnt. I thank all people I met on my way, I dealt with and had relationships with. They were my teachers towards my wisdom and mindfulness.

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

I thank them all! I thank them all! I thank them all!

I bow my head in front of them and kneel down. My priceless experience enriched me and made me stronger.

I am grateful for all lessons I learned in the past. My past is unique and I do not have to compare it to anyone else's. Each person goes through their own ideal way in sync with their soul. I am thankful for it. I thank God for it. My gratitude comes straight from my heart. Feel this kind flow. Feel it with all your body, with all yourself. Right there, you are getting healed from your enslaving and gloomy emotions, fears, grudges and disillusionments, indignation, aggression against someone or yourself. You are getting rid of the feeling of guilt as well with this healing gratitude – since what you have been doing up to now was something best you could do. You were a different person.

Forgive yourself and give thanks for all experience. Just stay in it, in this healing of your body and soul, in this blissful gratitude to Higher Forces, Universe and God for all your past. I am letting it go with gratitude.

I am healing my past with gratitude. I am learning my lessons with gratitude.

*I light the candle of thanks in soft moonlight.
Right there seeing sparks of joy; what a sight!
Love fills the world opening multiple doors.
Here is the chance that this one is yours.*

*I light the candle of thanks in soft moonlight.
Right there seeing sparks of joy; what a sight!
Love fills the world opening multiple doors.
Here is a chance that this one is yours.*

My heart is open, my soul sings odes,

*Grateful I am switching my life's new mode.
I am grateful for all, no limits for me.
Say thanks too, abide with me!*

*I am grateful for all, no limits for me.
Say thanks too, abide with me!*

*I am giving thanks, I am giving thanks, I am giving thanks,
I love my life, filling all the blanks.
I know what it takes to relish each new day
Flying sky high greeting warm sunrays.
Trust in better times, making dreams come true,
I do thank for all that and so do you.*

*I am living here now saying thanks for that.
I am breathing deep saying thanks for that.
I am singing, walking, seeing, running, being –
Now I know that my life's fulfilling!
Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!*

No matter what happens in my life, I am grateful for it, my Heavenly Father! I trust you and understand that this is for my own good. The problem is that I may not see all things right there. But I know that I will realize soon that this is only for the best. Therefore, I trust you unconditionally and give thanks for any experience in my life and any lesson I have learned.

With time, things will shape, be different and I will understand more. I would like to know more, I am grateful for it now. I trust you, being aware that any life experience of my life – the life you created, Creator. The life where I am a fully valid participant of things on my destiny. Even this makes me so grateful unconditionally for all things happening and things I have today. It does not matter if they seem good or bad to me.

They deserve not criticism but gratitude!
They deserve not criticism but gratitude!
They deserve not criticism but gratitude!

When you feel grateful, your life flourishes, your body thrives and your eyes sparkle, glowing divinely, with your soul and your divine nature sensing that – a sparkle of God inside each of us. Try to repeat the word THANK YOU as long as you can.

God, I thank you for your staying with me every minute of my life! I thank you for showing through lessons for me and my blessing. God does not have any other hands but human, God does not have any other lips but human. Which means that each person I encounter is sent to me for no reason. I need to take them as my conduits, being able to learn your divine signs on my way!

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

My gratitude is gushing from my soul. Give thanks for all you have and all you come across on your life path. Pray and you will heal your life. Pray and you will heal your life.

Give thanks to God for all things you have in your life. Find the reason to be happy every single day. For if you take a closer look at it, you will find more reasons to be grateful than unhappy. What happens is that we simply get used to having all those things and take them for granted while giving too much meaning to stuff we are unhappy with. Try to change the way you look at things, paying attention to good things without focusing on negative stuff. Learn to be happy about simplest things and stay open as a child, find that child inside yourself.

Talk to people more often, say words of gratitude to them and to God. Spread gratitude throughout all your life and your destiny will be healed from many ailments, doors of luck, creative inspiration will open and your physical body will be healed. Thank your body for serving you every day. Look at it with your inner eye and use the best gratitude words to make it happy. See it healed, beautiful, healthy, young, full of life stamina and energy. Try to stay in that sincere gratitude for yourself taking you as you are as a beautiful God's creation! See yourself healed from any diseases and ailments.

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

*I am looking at my body
Marveling at every inch of it.
This feast is all about my gaudy,
All about love I discovered bit by bit.
I am in love, I stay grateful
For God's given me the real me:
My body, my home and my temple.
This song is sung Lord for thee!
I love my all, body and soul;
Singing joy songs, saying warm thanks.
I love my all body and soul,
Singing joy songs, saying warm thanks.*

Now give thanks to God and Higher Forces as well as the Universe for your future. For example, for things you want to have. However, make sure to use Present tense, like, if you wish to get healed then give thanks for it already happening, or for increasing your income, like if that has happened:

Thank you, God, for my prosperity!

Thanks for my healing!

Thank you for my income growing!

And so on. With that, you are signaling having faith in the Universe that thing will happen for sure and you are already grateful for that.

*Thank you, thank you thank you!
For wonders happening around.
Thank you, thank you thank you!
For all the things I have found.
Thank you, thank you thank you!*

I will get warm with thanks

*I will get healed with thanks.
I love the Earth, its people, thanks!*

Give thanks for every single day you live. Bid farewell to it with gratitude too.

GRATITUDE PRAYER FOR TODAY

Having learned to give thanks, you get the whole world open and those doors you would find closed before, because your heart is filled with flames of divine warmth. It is spreading all things around, all things you can touch. Both life and people are turning their fairest side to you with more and more better and kinder things being there in your life. For you have learned to be grateful and you have learned to give thanks. The Universe is willing to hold you in angels' wings. Wonders are coming into your life that never used to be there before. Your sincere gratitude coming straight from your heart can change the world around you. It has a great power of the Divine love. Thanks to that you live. I wish you all to be grateful, speak thankfully, express it with smiles, looks, gestures and your warm heart.

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

Now leave the meditation state staying filled with your sincere and healing gratitude in your heart. All your life and yourself are blossoming as a beautiful mountain flower. Every month on the 21st we perform a collective Peace meditation.

AFTERWORD

Dear friends!

Now you are finished reading a unique book with the 22 codes/energies. As the author of the Destiny Matrix ©, I am wishing you to discover the new horizons in your mindfulness and spiritual journey. I am wishing you awakening in all three worlds: physical, the world of soul and the spirit land. Let this book become your starting point of a new, fair, kind, loving, grateful, accepting and open heart on your life long way!

Thank you, thank you, thank you!

My team mates and me will be happy to welcome you on my new website www.ladini22.com, Facebook page: <https://www.facebook.com/destinymatrix22codes/>, at my courses, workshops and webinars.

*How gorgeous this dance of love!
It comes from deep down inside!
Just look within yourself above
Right there, love pours beyond your pride.
Clouds shimmer, stars sparkle!
God is there behind the dark hill.
What a beauty to be free!
What a gift my life can be!
Greeting the dawn, ceasing to moan...
Love your own self, meaning to delve
Deep down inside, go beyond false pride!*
